WAUSAU HIGH SCHOOL

WAUSAU, WISCONSIN

VOLUME 46

KAREN KAPLAN,
ELIZABETH SEIDEL Associate Editors

MARY CHROUSER Business Manager

In a year when the attention of the world was focused on issues of the cold war, when the orbital flight of John Glenn was making history, and when millions of Americans were touring fabulous Seattle world's fair, the activity of a local high school in a small central-Wisconsin city seemed obscure and insignificant. Yet to almost 1700 students who lived and laughed within the walls of that school, it was a year they would never forget.

From registration in September to graduation in June, the '62 school year at Wausau Senior High was a time of academic growth and social contact. Wausau Week with all the homecoming festivities highlighted the fall of the year. Record turnouts and wild enthusiasm made this a week to remember. In sports, the ski team won the state title for the fifth consecutive time, while Wausau curlers wound up their fifteenth year at WHS. "Tropicana" was the theme of the '62 Junior Prom, the highlight of spring activities. Finally graduation on June 7th, the big night for about 550 proud seniors, CLIMAXED...

THAT

WONDERFUL YEAR

DEDICATED TO . . . Mr. Lowell Johnson

To you, Mr. Lowell Johnson, a skilled teacher and coach, young in appearance and mature in thought, to you who has helped us to win many tennis championships and has served WHS faithfully and efficiently for the last six years, we—the seniors—dedicate this 1962 Wahiscan.

Roeske Retires After 41 Years Service at W.H.S.

For forty-one years Mr. E. A. Roeske has served Wausau Senior High School faithfully, loyally, and efficiently. Upon the conclusion of the 1961-62 year, he will retire as an active member of our school administration.

One of Mr. Roeske's greatest assets was his dedication to not only the school itself, but also to the students. Long after school hours he offered new challenges to the more talented students and additional help to the slower ones. Many students developed a greater desire to achieve through Mr. Roeske's influence.

We shall always remember him for being calm and even-tempered, a capable leader and advisor, an excellent conversationalist, and a friend to everyone.

To you, Mr. Roeske, who have done such an outstanding job as a counsellor, teacher, and leader during your years of service, we wish continued strength and health in the days that lie ahead.

WAUSAU BOARD OF EDUCATION . . .

Wausau is proud to be a city with one of the best educational systems in the state. Enough credit cannot be given to the nine members of the school board who have worked tirelessly without pay to make it so. Elected for three year terms, board members are responsible for providing buildings, teachers, and equipment for the education of all students in the public schools of our city. One of the most important duties of the board is adjusting the budget and distributing the funds in the best possible way. Every student in Wausau Senior High benefits directly or indirectly through the sound judgment of the Board of Education.

That Wonderful Year of . . .

SENIORS

SENIORS . . .

Our last year is over, and we'll never be back as students again. Now we become alumni. We have many cherished memories to carry us through the years. We'll never forget the hard work put towards the senior class play, "Arsenic and Old Lace." We were just as excited about our senior class pictures as were the juniors about their rings. The football and basketball games played a big part in our life as students. Every week-end was looked forward to with great anticipation. Our senior debaters did a very good job in their work. We feel that we have helped to put that little "extra" into the life of our school. Our school paper was a once-every-three-week's accomplishment. Those ambitions and accomplishments have helped us to keep our school at the top of the state high school list.

We'll remember our junior year by recalling the Holiday Dance with "Harbor Lights" as the theme and our junior prom, "Gone With the Wind."

We'll always remember our sophomore year with the recollection of the words "shelf" and "greenies." We entered a building filled with long corridors, hard-to-find cafeteria and choir rooms, and strange faces. But we spent much of our time observing and learning from the more experienced juniors and seniors.

We approach the day of graduation with mixed feelings of excitement, apprehension, joy, and sorrow. We now realize that we have completed one stage in our lives and are about to embark upon another; yet, when we pause, we look back with satisfaction and relief upon three wonderful, memorable years at WHS.

Seniors Caught in Action . . .

You say you got the wrong door, Liz?

Mary Sue Winetzki ponders in the quiet of the evening.

Ernst, Borchardt, Rudell, Zuch, Bessey, and Closway really must have something important to say.

Marek, Ostring, Merwin, Goetsch, Semerav, and Rolfson economize during a free moment.

STANDING: Mary Erdman, Patrick Mangene, Sharon Stadler, David Jalinski, Patricia Russell, Louis Mortenson, David Tanck, Anne Prehn.

SITTING: Barbara Erdman, Jeanne Mangene, Karon Stadler, Dale Jalinski, Michele Russell, Lois Mortenson, Darlene Tanck, Lynn Prehn.

. . . Senior Twins and Triplets

LEFT TO RIGHT: Joyce, Jerold and Joan Fritz.

One of the most perplexing problems a teacher must face is that of deciding who is who when it comes to twins and triplets. Nothing is more frustrating than asking Herman a question and finding that Herman is sitting on the other side of the room. This year's graduating class is blessed with eight sets of twins and one set of triplets. Little wonder many of our teachers grow gray hairs during another school year.

They Aimed For Excellence . . .

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION AWARD

This award is given each year as a good citizenship award to a senior girl who possesses the qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. A 500 word essay on an assigned subject is also required. Local winners compete state-wide for a $100 bond. The state winners are eligible to compete nationally.

ELKS MOST VALUABLE STUDENT AWARD

One senior boy and one senior girl receive this award based on scholarship and financial need. The judging is based on 60% scholarship; 10% extra curricular and outside school activities; 10% personality and leadership; 10% perseverance and resourcefulness; 10% general worthiness and financial need. These people win a $150 bond and can compete state-wide and nationally.

ELKS LEADERSHIP AWARD

A $150 bond is given each year to one senior girl and one senior boy. It is not based on scholarship, but on 40% leadership; 20% citizenship appreciation; 20% perseverance and resourcefulness; 10% neatness and arrangement of a brochure; and compliance with instructions. The local winners may compete on state and national levels.

AMERICAN LEGION AWARD

For the second successive year, Tom Tinkham won the local, regional, and state American Legion Oratorical Championship and represented Wisconsin in national competition.

NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The people eligible for this award must be in the upper one percent in a national test. Those in this category then take the College Board Tests, and if their grade is high enough here, they are national finalists or winners. A certificate of merit accompanies this winning. This year honorable mention was given to John Lenz, Gary Schulz, James Hess, Thomas Tinkham, George Nelson, and James Carter.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF ENGLISH TEACHERS AWARD

Each year 25 or 30 juniors who are top English students are nominated by their English teachers for this award. The nominated students are then asked to write a 250 or 300 word autobiography. From this, four finalists are chosen and they are announced in their senior year. Local Winners compete state-wide and state winners automatically become one of the 436 national winners. National winners have their names sent to all major colleges and universities and this usually results in scholarships. The winners this year are Jerry Goetsch, Mary Juneau, Nancy Klemm, and Gary Schulz.

STUDENT LIFE

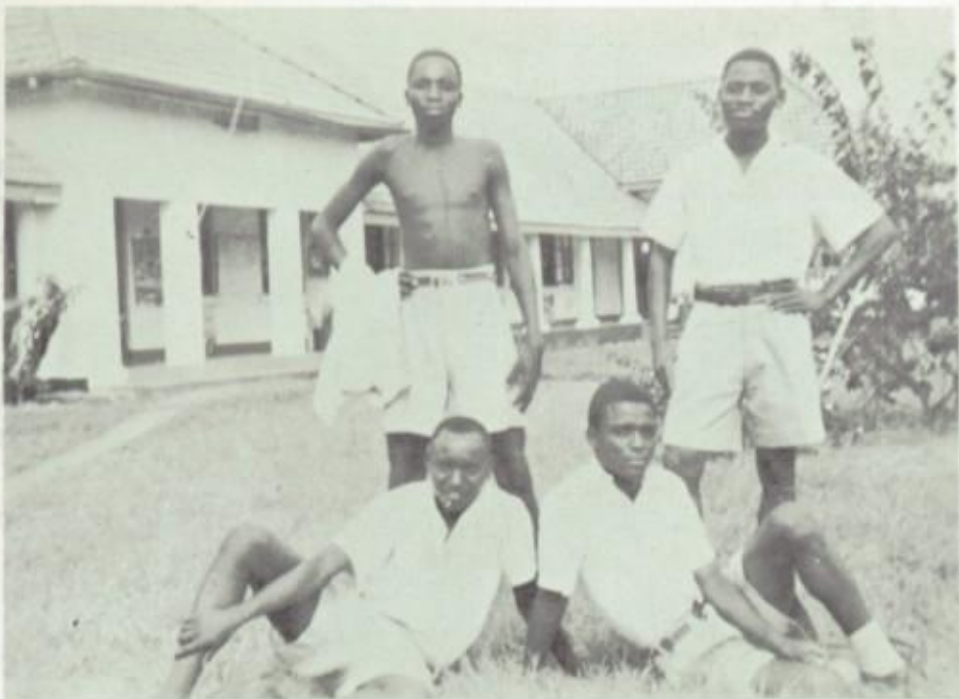

Starace, Tinkham, Ingila
Food, a universal language

The spreading of good will among nations of the world is a valuable part of student exchange programs. In this way students learn to know and understand each other better. As they take time out from their busy schedule, Riccardo, Tom, and Richard show that Senior High has made a good start toward this goal. The experiences related by each of these students was an important addition to student life.

Student Exchange Programs . . .

Riccardo Starace's family gathers at Positano, a resort 40 miles from Naples on the Tyrrhenian Sea. Seated left to right are mother, Federica, Francesco, Riccardo, Andrea, Vincenzo, Alberta, Sandra, Lilli, and father standing. Riccardo is sixth in the family, having two younger sisters. After this year, Riccardo has one more year of high school before going on to the University of Naples to study engineering. His three brothers are now attending that university studying either architecture, chemistry, or law. During this school year, Riccardo stayed at the home of Dave Telder. The American Field Service sponsored Riccardo's visit to the United States.

Richard Ingila (upper right) and three school friends relax in Kenya's warm climate.

Richard attended the Shimola Tewa School in Mombasa, Kenya.

Senior High's first exchange student from Africa, Richard Ingila, was born in Teita, Kenya, and is a member of the tribe of 60,000. In addition to his parents, Richard's family consists of a brother and three sisters. Ingila stayed at the Reverend Carleton Fisher's home under the sponsorship of the Universalist Church and the African-American Student Foundation.

Are in Action at W.H.S.

This past summer Tom Tinkham (left) participated in the American Field Service program by visiting Brazil for two months. During this time, he stayed with the Gonzaga family. Here Tom and his brother Lucas pose on their father's farm of 142,000 acres, which is located in the central part of Brazil and is in a semi-arid region (It didn't rain once during Tom's stay). The Gonzaga family also own 36,000 head of Brahman cattle. Tom's brother is 19 and is in his last year of high school. His faint oriental cast comes from a mixture of Indian and Portuguese blood.

Wausau Week features . . .

The Wausau Day Committee:

BACK ROW: Mrs. Alexander, Mr. Putman, Tom Tinkham, Mr. Baranowski, Mr. Hylkema, Mr. Marquardt.
FRONT ROW: Mary Chrouser, Miss Buchholz, Miss Satter, Miss McGuire, Miss Gibson, Miss Williams.

A kick-off assembly began Wausau Week. "Brock" introduced the football team, and the Wausau Day Committee and queen candidates were also presented.

Extensive campaigning was evident during the early part of the week, which was highlighted by a parade and final voting on Tuesday.

A new innovation in the annual celebration was Red and White Day on Thursday, at which time all students wore clothes representing the school colors. Mad Hatters Day was replaced by Hex Day; students dressed in clothes of clashing colors to cast a hex on LaCrosse.

The parade on Tuesday was one of the big moments of Wausau Week. About 12:30 the cars began to line up in various places around the school. All the girls rode about in beautiful convertibles.

Many different cars made up the rest of the parade. Among them were Tim O'Leary in his model A Ford. There were also several trucks that carried bands in the parade. Many happy hours were spent decorating the cars and the efforts were well worth it.

. . . Spirited Campaigning

The Assembly Hall was the site of the large posters displayed by the queen candidates.

John Ullrich, Marcia Johnson, Sandy Garske, and Diane Gease all worked hard making decorations for Kathy Kann.

Marta Schade is Crowned Queen

Before the Wausau Eve stage program began, students enjoyed a movie, The Littlest Outlaw, or dancing in the girls gym. At 9:15 the lights went down, and Tom Tinkham officially opened the program as master of ceremonies. Skits were presented by the new and old teachers. The Pep Club presented a routine featuring cheerleaders from different countries. Special guests that evening included the award-winning Wausau Barbershop Chorus and Miss Wisconsin. As the end of the program neared, the tension mounted. Finally the grand climax of the evening came when Marta Sue Schade was crowned Wausau Day Queen. Marta's first royal decree of the evening was an invitation for all to attend the dance following the program.

Wausau Day Climaxes a Fun- Filled Week!

During Wausau Day everyone wore clashing clothes as part of Hex Day. The Pep Club glove and pom pon sections were hard at work during the week, and they finally showed off their talents that night at the game. Twirlers and a band program were also featured during half time. The Wausau victory was a fitting close to the day.

The Holiday Dance is one of the big social events of the Christmas season. The dance is held annually at the Elks Club and occurs during the Christmas vacation. Although sponsored by the junior girls, girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes attend. This dance gives a girl the opportunity to invite the boy, a turn about from the usual tradition. Before and after the dance, many students attend private parties. At left Anne Prehn is being served by Tina Drott, hostess of party before the dance.

Tom Terwilliger and his date Ann Landon, along with Al Kuehl and Ellen Balz dance by the center of attraction, which was a white horse and sleigh. The theme chosen for this year's gala affair was "Winterland by Night". Mary Vigneau and Kathy Carspecken served as co-chairmen of the event. Serving as advisor was Miss Schadney.

Dancers at the Holiday Dance pause between dances. Pine trees, surrounded by small animals, helped to create an outdoor scene depicting the theme. Overhanging the dance floor was a ceiling of streamers and stars. Dressed in ski outfits, students from the ninth grade were servers at the punch table. The Vikings, led by Brian Brunch as director, provided the music, and Eileen Nelson was the vocalist.

Sylvia Wallach and Jack Disbrow show off some fancy steps for a curious audience. This occurred at one of the many dances held throughout the school year. A hop was held in the new gym after most of the football and basketball games. The music for the hops was provided by records. Besides the hops, seasonal dances including the February and Autumn dances were held also in the gym. Larry Woodbury and his band played for the Autumn Dance. Santa Claus again visited the Christmas Dance and distributed presents to the few lucky ones. Students danced to the music of Sid Kyler. Tina Drott, social commissioner, Pinky Hollander, and their committee worked hard at making decorations for each of the dances.

CANDY COURT

ROW 2: Schaefer, Zeidler, Kumbera, Gall, Josiger.

ROW 1: Kundo, Blaskowski, Case, Rolfson, Miller, Westberg.

About 7,600 pounds of candy were sold in WHS's annual salt water taffy sale. Serving as chairman of this year's sale was Liz Seidel with Bob Mathisen as assistant and Mr. Roeske as advisor. The high boy and girl from each day made up the candy court, with the total high salesman serving as king or queen. Kay Miller reigned as queen of this year's candy dance. Providing the music was the Tophatters, and Diane Leverton and Tom Schwartz were the vocalists. Decorations for the dance were made by the Student Council.

Many school events occurred during the evenings and after school. Football and basketball games, wrestling matches, track meets, plays, hops, and Tophatter were examples of the extra-curricular activities which the students attended. Most of the events were met with an enthusiastic response from the students. A new gym and a new coach all added to an interesting basketball season. Through the leadership of the cheerleaders, much excitement was created, as can be seen by the picture at the left of Gary Erns, Steve Rudell, the cheerleaders, and the student body at a basketball game.

Our Students Enjoy Life In School and Out

Aside from school interests, students were engaged in many other activities. The movie theaters and pizza parlors were big attractions, but private parties were held throughout the year at individual homes, pajama, tobogganing, special-event, and general parties to name a few. At right Nancy Stoiber is the hostess of a pajama party at her home.

Ellen Balz, Dianne Doede, Mary Vigneau, Janice Cline, Sue Stauffer, Vicki Eckerle, Nancy Stoiber.

Assemblies were an enjoyable addition to the regular school routine for those who had activities tickets. On Tuesday morning, February 20th, Mr. James Walters and his wife gave an entertaining as well as educational program on hypnosis. Members of the senior class aided Mr. Walters with his demonstrations. At left he is asking Marijean Fenhous about her third Christmas. Mr. Walters also demonstrated self-hypnosis and post-hypnotic suggestions and told how hypnosis is used to save lives.

Kay Cunningham (left) learns about German pastimes, songs and language.

The second annual International Night was held on April 5. Miss Bonvincin directed the Spanish skit, which took place in a restaurant in Mexico. The French skit, directed by Mrs. Scheurman, gave a view of students studying French in a dormitory. The Latin classes under the direction of Mrs. Horkan featured some "sense and nonsense." Directing the German skit were Miss Garson, Miss Bonvincin, and Mr. Paul. A movie and a panel of exchange students were also on the program.

On May 11 the Junior Prom was held in the Youth Building at Marathon Park. Vivid orange and green was evident as the setting depicted a tropical paradise with palm trees, ferns, beautiful flowers, and live Myna birds. Couples danced by a tiered water fountain, which adorned the center of the dance floor, and colorful murals decorating the walls. In place of the usual streamers, fish nets hung from the ceiling. The queen's throne was backed by a large sea shell. Serving as the refreshment stand was a native hut. Faculty advisor was Mr. Woods, assisted by Mr. Reinemann, Mr. Gjetson, and Miss Becker.

Fads added to the variety of student activities and attire. Puffed hair and huge purses went together as girls carried everything necessary for good grooming. Some girls' heads were slightly enlarged after a process of spraying, ratting and brushing of hair. Many students became fascinated with their yoyos, a fad which hit WHS with quite an impact. Kilts, which many girls wore, showed the trend in raised hemlines. His and her sweaters left no doubt about who was going with whom. The Peppermint lounge had nothing on Senior High as was typified by the craze for the twist.

That Wonderful Year of . . .

ACADEMICS

ENGLISH:

Tom Hendrickson and Kathy Kann use the dictionary to increase their vocabulary as a part of senior English.

JOURNALISM:

Here in journalism class Phyllis Post, Tom Hennig, and John Gresens gather clippings to use as samples in the writing of newspaper stories.

COMMUNICATION Skills... Essential In Self-Expression

Four years of nouns, verbs, adverbs, and English teachers are needed for graduation. Sophomore English offers a complete review of grammar. Junior English develops straight thinking and the ability to judge the accuracy and validity of what you read and hear. Senior English, a terminal course, serves as college preparation.

In debate class, Gary Schulz tries to get his point across to determined Missy Foreen. Nancy Klaprat takes notes while listening. Qualifications for this class are determined by the results of special tests and try-outs. This year's class work has been centered around the question: Federal aid to education.

TYPING:

Typing students throw away the old "hunt and peck" method as skill and precision develop through practice and drill.

COMMERCIAL... Students Learn Efficient Methods

ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY:

As a part of the economic geography course Jerry Schmidt and Sandy Schneck examine land formations. This course gives a background of information upon which the student may better interpret the world neighborhood.

SHORTHAND:

Miss Swain reviews words with Gloria Delf. Shorthand knowledge is not only important for the secretary-minded girls, but also for those who are going on to college for easy note-taking.

PHYSICS—Mr. Berg demonstrates Archimedes' Principle in physics class. The attentive students looking on are Barbara Gering, Jack Torney, Georgianna Smith, Marcia Shymanski, and Mike Siegel.

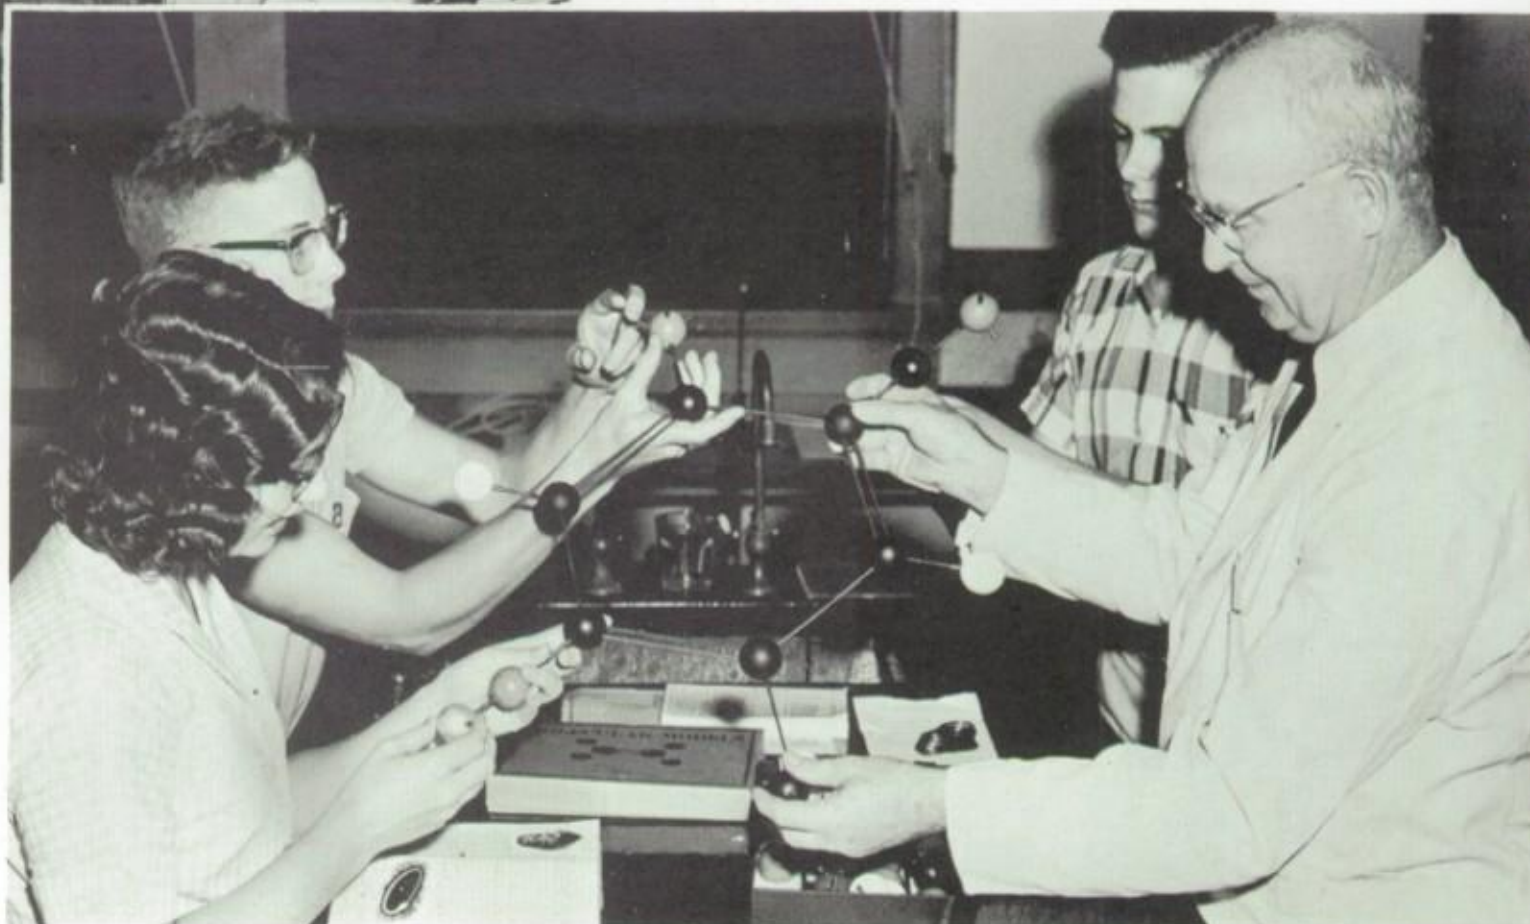

H₂O Discovered By Scientists

Science plays a leading role in the life of the high school student. Physics is a natural science concerned primarily with the principles and laws governing the inanimate world around us. Conversely, biology deals with a world of living things and chemistry, with the reactions occurring in it.

BIOLOGY:
Mr. Smiley conducts a field trip.

Chemistry classes offer an introduction to basic concepts and mechanics. Bonnie Beaty, Lee Buechler, and Jeff Johnson study molecular structure under Mr. Johnson.

REASONING Tried

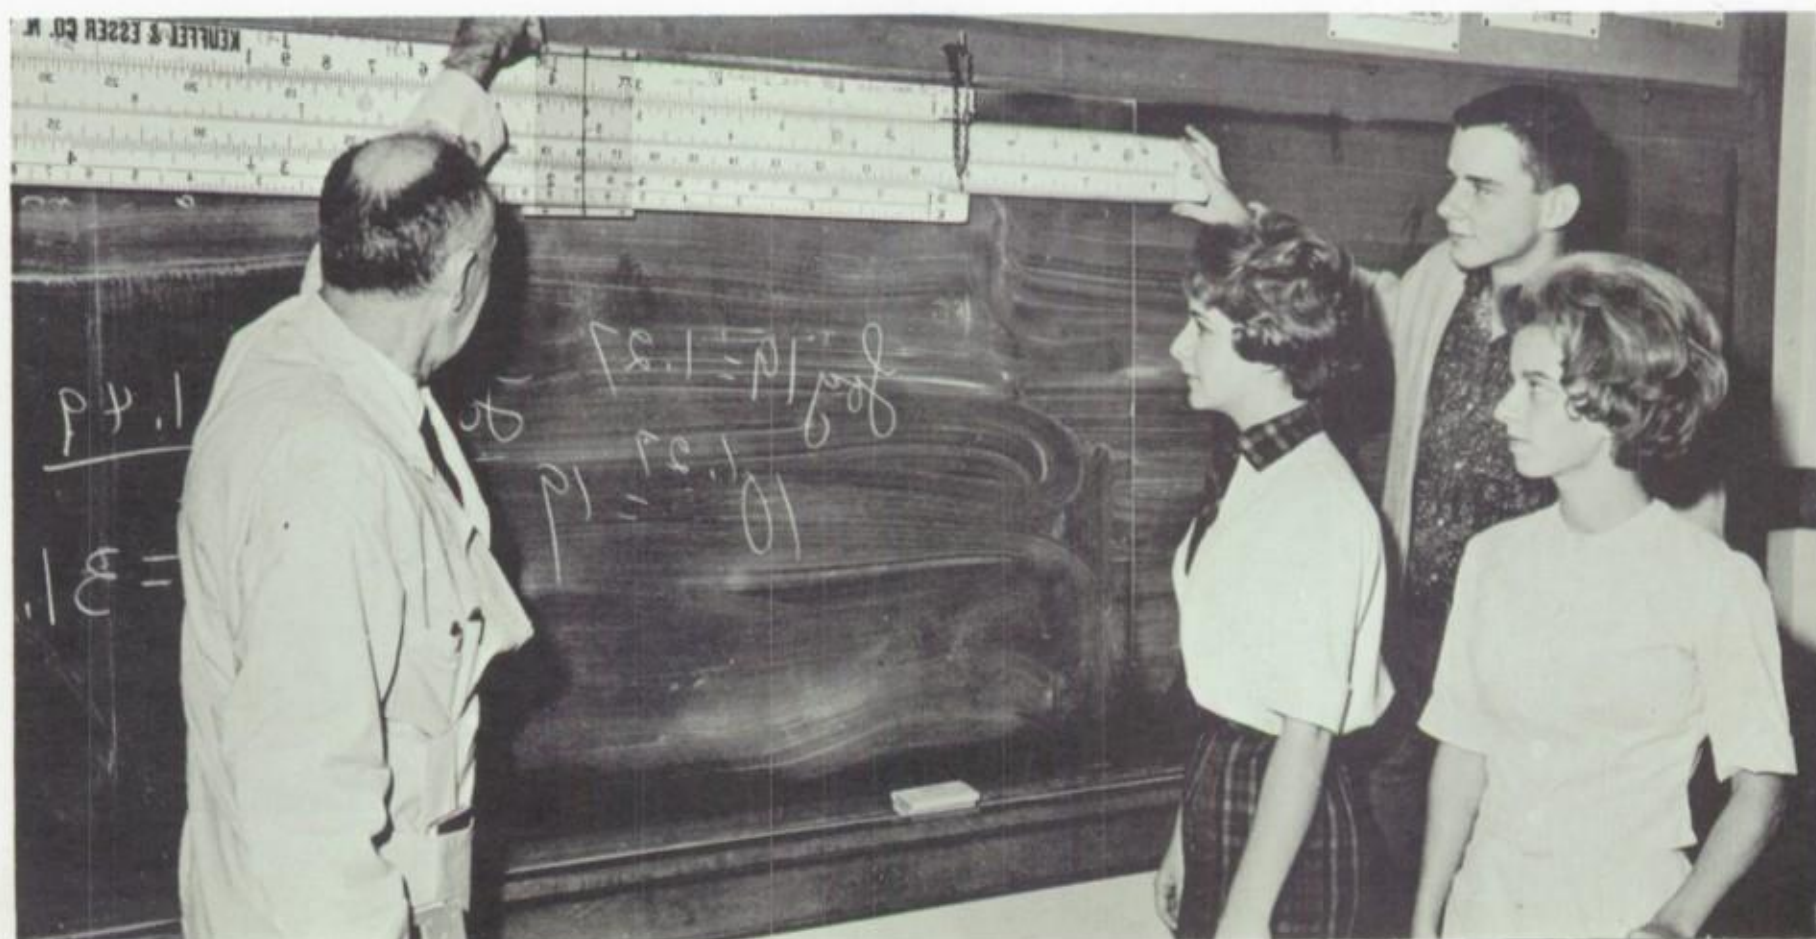

By Jr. Einsteins

Many cans of midnight oil have been burned for the many mathematics courses offered here. Mathematics is a real need in everyone's life and shouldn't be thought of only as a college entrance requirement. The various courses include: Consumer mathematics, algebra I-IV, geometry I-III and trigonometry.

ALGEBRA—Mr. Lutfrell demonstrates the use of the slide rule as Anne Prehn, Sheila Luedtke and Tom Tinkham look on in advanced algebra class.

GEOMETRY—Puzzled by the geometrical figures in geometry class are Rusty Synhorst, Bruce Closway, and Nancy Beneditz.

Mr. Lee points out various parts of the world to Charles Johnson, Barbara Johnson, and Rick Eggebreht, in World History class.

In U.S. History class, Jackie Duranceau shows the changes made in Old Glory to Riccardo Starace and Richard Ingila, our exchange students.

(In the picture below) To illustrate to the student the need for objectivity and even more graphically the differences of opinion resulting from many witnesses viewing the same incident, a purse snatching was staged in the Assembly Hall. Students involved are Michele Russell and William Rich. Mr. Howe, upper left is the instructor.

Glances of Past and Future Are Reviewed

One of the basic requirements for the continued success of a democracy is an educated and well-informed public. World history courses aim to present the development of civilization in such a way as to provide you with a background for understanding the present. United States history is a course which will help one to understand the common problems of our United States. There are three American problem courses offered for the seniors.

John Prigge demonstrates the porron, a Spanish drinking glass, as Barbara Schmidt and Robert Dalnodar look on in amazement.

Listening to Uncle Jim tapes in German class are: Miss Garson, Bruce Allen (deep in thought), and Nancy Machel.

LANGUAGE... The Key To Good Human Relations

Today, when we can jet to any part of the world in a matter of hours it's essential that Americans be able to communicate fluently with people of other lands. Here at Wausau Senior High, French, German, Latin and Spanish are offered. These courses bring more than an additional means of communication; they develop understanding of other peoples and their differing cultures. Foreign language encourages creative ability and self-expression.

WOODWORK For those people who enjoy constructing projects of wood, woodworking is the course to be taken. It helps the person to be a better consumer of wood products and could lead to a chosen field. Woodwork is one of eight industrial art courses offered.

Working on their wood projects here are, Edward Pautz, Robert Patyk, Wesley Little, Don Meurett, Dale Matis and Douglas Langhoff.

Did I do that? gasps Marlene Parsh. Mr. Curtis is the instructor. After the lessons you can be sure the above picture is not typical.

AGRICULTURE—Mr. Hylkema, here, is explaining the need for good soil conservation practices on a model of a large field showing terraces and strip cropping. The boys are: Merlin Goetsch, Tim Hunt, Eugene Woller, (Mr. Hylkema), Ron Marks, Roger Neitzke, George Koehler, Dennis Schmidt, LeRoy Ostrowski, Lee Londerville and John Londerville.

Today We Learn . . .

DRIVER TRAINING—An elective for juniors, the purpose of "behind-the-wheel" training is to give practical experience to the student learning to drive. The driver may obtain his license after completion of 18 lessons and the state drivers test. Driver education, a sophomore requirement, teaches the prospective driver the general mechanics and principles of operating a car.

Anxious to finish their clothing projects here are: Karen Pergolski, Carol Piaszak, Donna Sickler, Judy Letto, and Karla Zeinert.

CLOTHING Girls taking home economics get a wonderful chance to look ahead realistically to their future needs, for modern home "ec" is actually a step to successful family living. The students progress from simple cotton garments to suits and dresses. Actually sewing is only a part of the work. Design, color, and good grooming are also studied.

. . . Tomorrow We Use

ART The six courses available range from the basic fundamentals in Art 1 to individual projects in Art IV. The many exhibits provide the student with opportunities to display his work in oils, sculpture, ceramics, and jewelry. With these many art courses, the students, are given a chance to express themselves in a type of art which they enjoy.

Merry Zeeb, Sue Hickey, Jeanne Mangene, and Marie Grade clean their paint brushes in art class.

STUDY HALL An important part of every student's program in Wausau Senior High is that 60 minutes when assignments can be completed. If the student has any reference work, he may go to the library, where he is allowed two passes a week. Regardless of which courses he may select, the student endeavors to complete them to the best possible level.

That Wonderful Year of . . .

UNDERCLASSMEN

KNEELING: Dick Roe, Vice President.

Our high school years could be compared to a four-flight staircase. The first being our freshman year and the last our senior. As juniors we have climbed three-fourths of the way; it is up to us now to make the last flight. We all know that there are no elevators to come at the push of a button and whisk us to the top. Each step is difficult and sometimes very trying for most of us.

Leaving the thoughts of our struggle for a moment, let's look on the brighter side. It doesn't hurt anyone to sit down and take a "breather." This would include all of our school social activities such as basketball games, football games—not even to mention all of the others. Ending our junior year, the Prom was a smashing success and more spectacular than in previous years.

Your class officers, Ron Fish, Dick Roe, Penny Gease, and Advisor Mr. Staats, believe that the junior class has contributed immeasurably to the tremendous spirit and support in making this year a real "BOOMER."

IN MEMORIAM . . .

We dedicate here a memorial to Julie who once walked among us, who once looked up into her world to wonder of the future and ponder over the past; she has claimed her heritage to eternity.

How few are the facts of her life, mere words which once represented life and being, hopes and dreams . . . for she was not without these things.

For those who loved her, we offer up a prayer, and leave these lines in lasting memory to Julie Radant who is gone.

Julie was born on May 23, 1945. She was seriously injured in an automobile accident on June 11 and passed away on June 17, 1961.

Bill Weisner, president; Al Kuehl, vice President; Joan Grabilska, secretary; and Mr. Schumacher, advisor.

After the confusion and bewilderment of entering high school this year, we feel that we have become accustomed to WHS; and, we are determined to take a firm stand in whatever we undertake to do. We have made many friends; and, we hope, have become familiar faces to everyone. Not only do we forgotten sophomores study, but we also take an active part in the extra-curricular activities of the school.

This year has been a most challenging and interesting one with new fields to explore and new goals to reach scholastically, athletically and socially. We have gained much confidence in ourselves since we have been here.

We were the first class of sophomores to be able to participate in the use of new gym and cafeteria. We feel that we will be able to handle the responsibilities put into our hands and to maintain the high standards attained by Wausau Senior High.

An important part of any class is the election of class officers. This is the time when the students have the opportunity to show their ability to select able and willing leaders.

Biology fieldtrips give the students an opportunity to put to practice the material which they absorb from the textbook. This is the highlight of the year for the classes.

It seems that the sophomores will go to no end to find excitement. What is this thing called co-educational banister sliding?

Sophomores like Laurie Telder sometimes get carried away with the recent emphasis on physical fitness. Someone should make an appeal to President Kennedy.

CLASS OF '64

The seniors and juniors unanimously agree that the sophomores are out to lunch. On this picture they aren't even smiling. I wonder what they have in their lunch bags!

Do you really want to know why those big, bright, red trucks came, and all the students left school with the teachers running close behind? Ask Chip Winters.

Who said Chuck Donner wasn't a studious person? This proves that sophomores do actually become bogged down by work. I wonder what the juniors and seniors look like.

These students seem to be having some difficulty persuading their fellow sophomore to face facts and climb back into the swing of things.

Sophomores on the shelf — their favorite roost.

That Wonderful Year In . . .

SPORTS

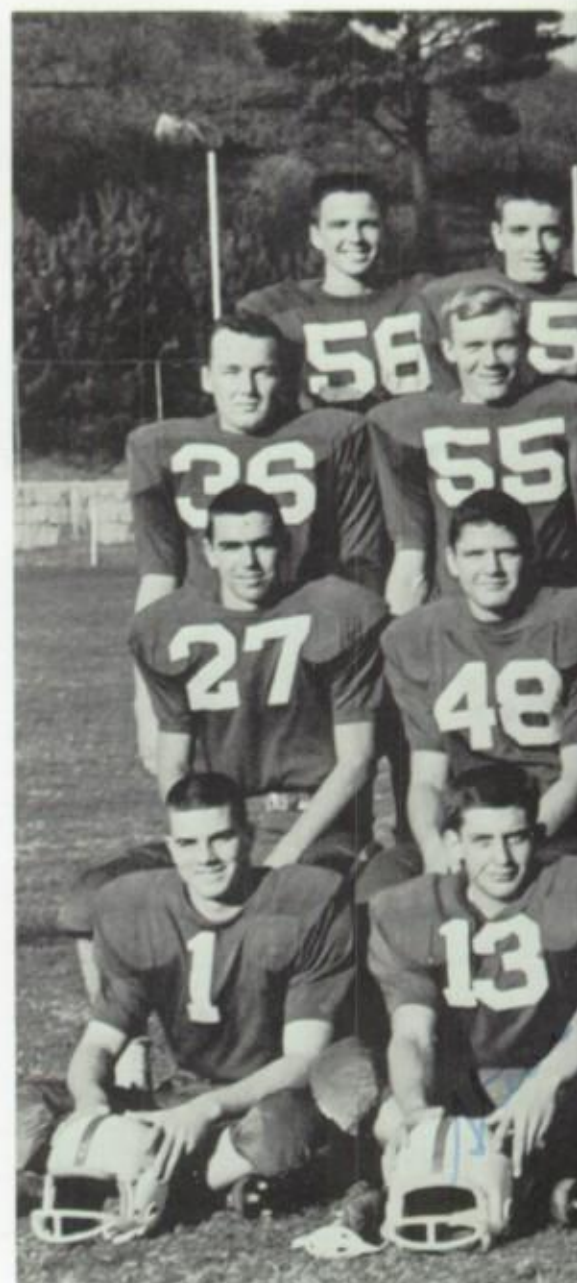

VARSITY FOOTBALL . . .

Few people conceded the 1961 football team a chance of winning many games this year. Only a few lettermen back from last year's fine squad made things look anything but bright. After the first two games with Point and Rapids and lopsided scores, the prospects brightened and it appeared the Lumberjacks would develop into one of those fine teams so traditional of Wausau High School.

Gaining momentum as the season progressed, Wausau went right down to the final game as possible conference champs, only to have Eau Claire win 13 to 7. What a game! Next week, however, found the Jacks making a tremendous comeback by beating Superior the second ranking team in the state 26 to 13.

Their coming from behind, after being down 13 to 0, was without doubt the best team effort covering some 50 games.

So ended a 25 year span for the Lumberjacks with 169 victories, just 22 defeats and 7 ties, for a batting average of .888.

Lowell Johnson, "B" squad coach

Wausau Bees Win 6, Lose 1

The 1961 "B" team played seven games, winning six and losing one. This team showed great potential ability. We expect that in the coming year great things will come from these boys. This team contained many sophomore faces. The boys that carried the main responsibility this year were: Dick Roe and Ken Schiefelbein at quarterback, Ron Fish, Larry Funk, Steve Pellet, Dick Thurs, and John Buzza rounded out the backfield positions. In the line two sophomores Rusty Brodhead and Terry Tomczak did a real fine job as ends, as well as Dave Patefield and Dave Doty, juniors at the end positions. Paul Klemm and Jan Hettinga filled the tackle positions very adequately. The guards were sophomores Mike Kalinke and Jim Sullivan, juniors Craig Hall and Jim Felch. The center spot was capably filled by junior Tom Omholt. Tom was very dependable on offense and was outstanding on defense at a right corner line backer's position.

We are all very well pleased with the fine overall performance of this year's "B" team.

Halfback Paul Anderson intercepts a La. Crosse Central pass in the end zone.

A defeated Wausau team leaves the field after a hard fought battle against St. Louis Park.

Ticket sales manager (A. J. Hagemann) smiles as he takes in Wausau High cash.

The sale of tickets for football remained basically unchanged during the 1961 season. The advance sale of season tickets and single game reserved seats was handled through a local drug store. All other tickets were sold at the gate.

At the start of the basketball season a new approach was tried. The season tickets, which were ordered in advance, were mailed to the purchasers, and they were billed for the amount of the tickets ordered. This method of distributing season tickets seemed very satisfactory and will probably be used with football as well as basketball.

Another innovation of the basketball season has been the selling of a 35c high school ticket in advance of the game. This results in a 15c saving over the regular game price of 50c.

There has been some thought of having a junior high and grade school season ticket for the football games. This would mean a savings to the students attending from the schools in town and might encourage more younger students to attend the football games.

CROSS COUNTRY . . .

The Wausau Senior High School Cross-Country team of 1961 maintained the high traditions established in past years as they finished fourth in the state large school class at Hartford. The team defeated Eau Claire, twice, and Everest and Wisconsin Rapids in dual meet competition. In the large invitational meets Wausau placed second at Shawano, first in the twelve team Wausau meet, and fourth at Janesville. In the sectional meet at Madison, Wausau qualified for the state finals by placing third.

Senior Jim Edwards won his third letter award in cross-country as he finished a fine career by winning the sectional meet and placing second in the state meet. Jim Bradley and Ron Yonke also won their third letter. Seniors Ken Hahn and Orrin Vanderwarker, and Juniors Jerry Van Prooyan and Ron Baeseman achieved their first letter. Managers Conrad Davis and Don Eggebrecht also lettered.

Led by a fine group of sophomores, the Wausau "B" squad won every meet in which they participated, except the Janesville meet.

Wausau "A" squad runners took the first five places in this dual meet with Eau Claire.

Runners, on your marks, get set, go! Wausau won its own annual invitational meet placing four runners in the top twelve.

Jacks Win 9, Lose 12
In Rebuilding Year

Wausau High School began the 1961-62 basketball season by whipping the Rhinelander Ho-dags 38 to 32. It was apparent from the start that the Lumberjacks were headed for a rebuilding year with only three returning veterans, Edwards, Fish, and Kuehl.

They compiled a season's record of 9 wins and 12 losses. In the Big Rivers Conference the Jacks tied for last place with Menomonee, Michigan, giving them an over-all conference record of 2-6.

Coach Jack Torresani, in his first year as Lum-berjack coach, used virtually the same starting line-up throughout the season. Wausau's first team consisted of forwards Jim Severson and Al Kuehl, guards Jim Edwards and Ken Schiefelbein, and center Dave Telder.

The team finished the season with a heart-breaking 60-56 overtime defeat to Antigo in the Wausau Sub-regional Tournament.

The Jacks are losing three fine seniors through graduation this year: Jim Edwards, Eric Larsen, and Dave Telder. Their rebounding and defensive strength will certainly be a loss to the squad.

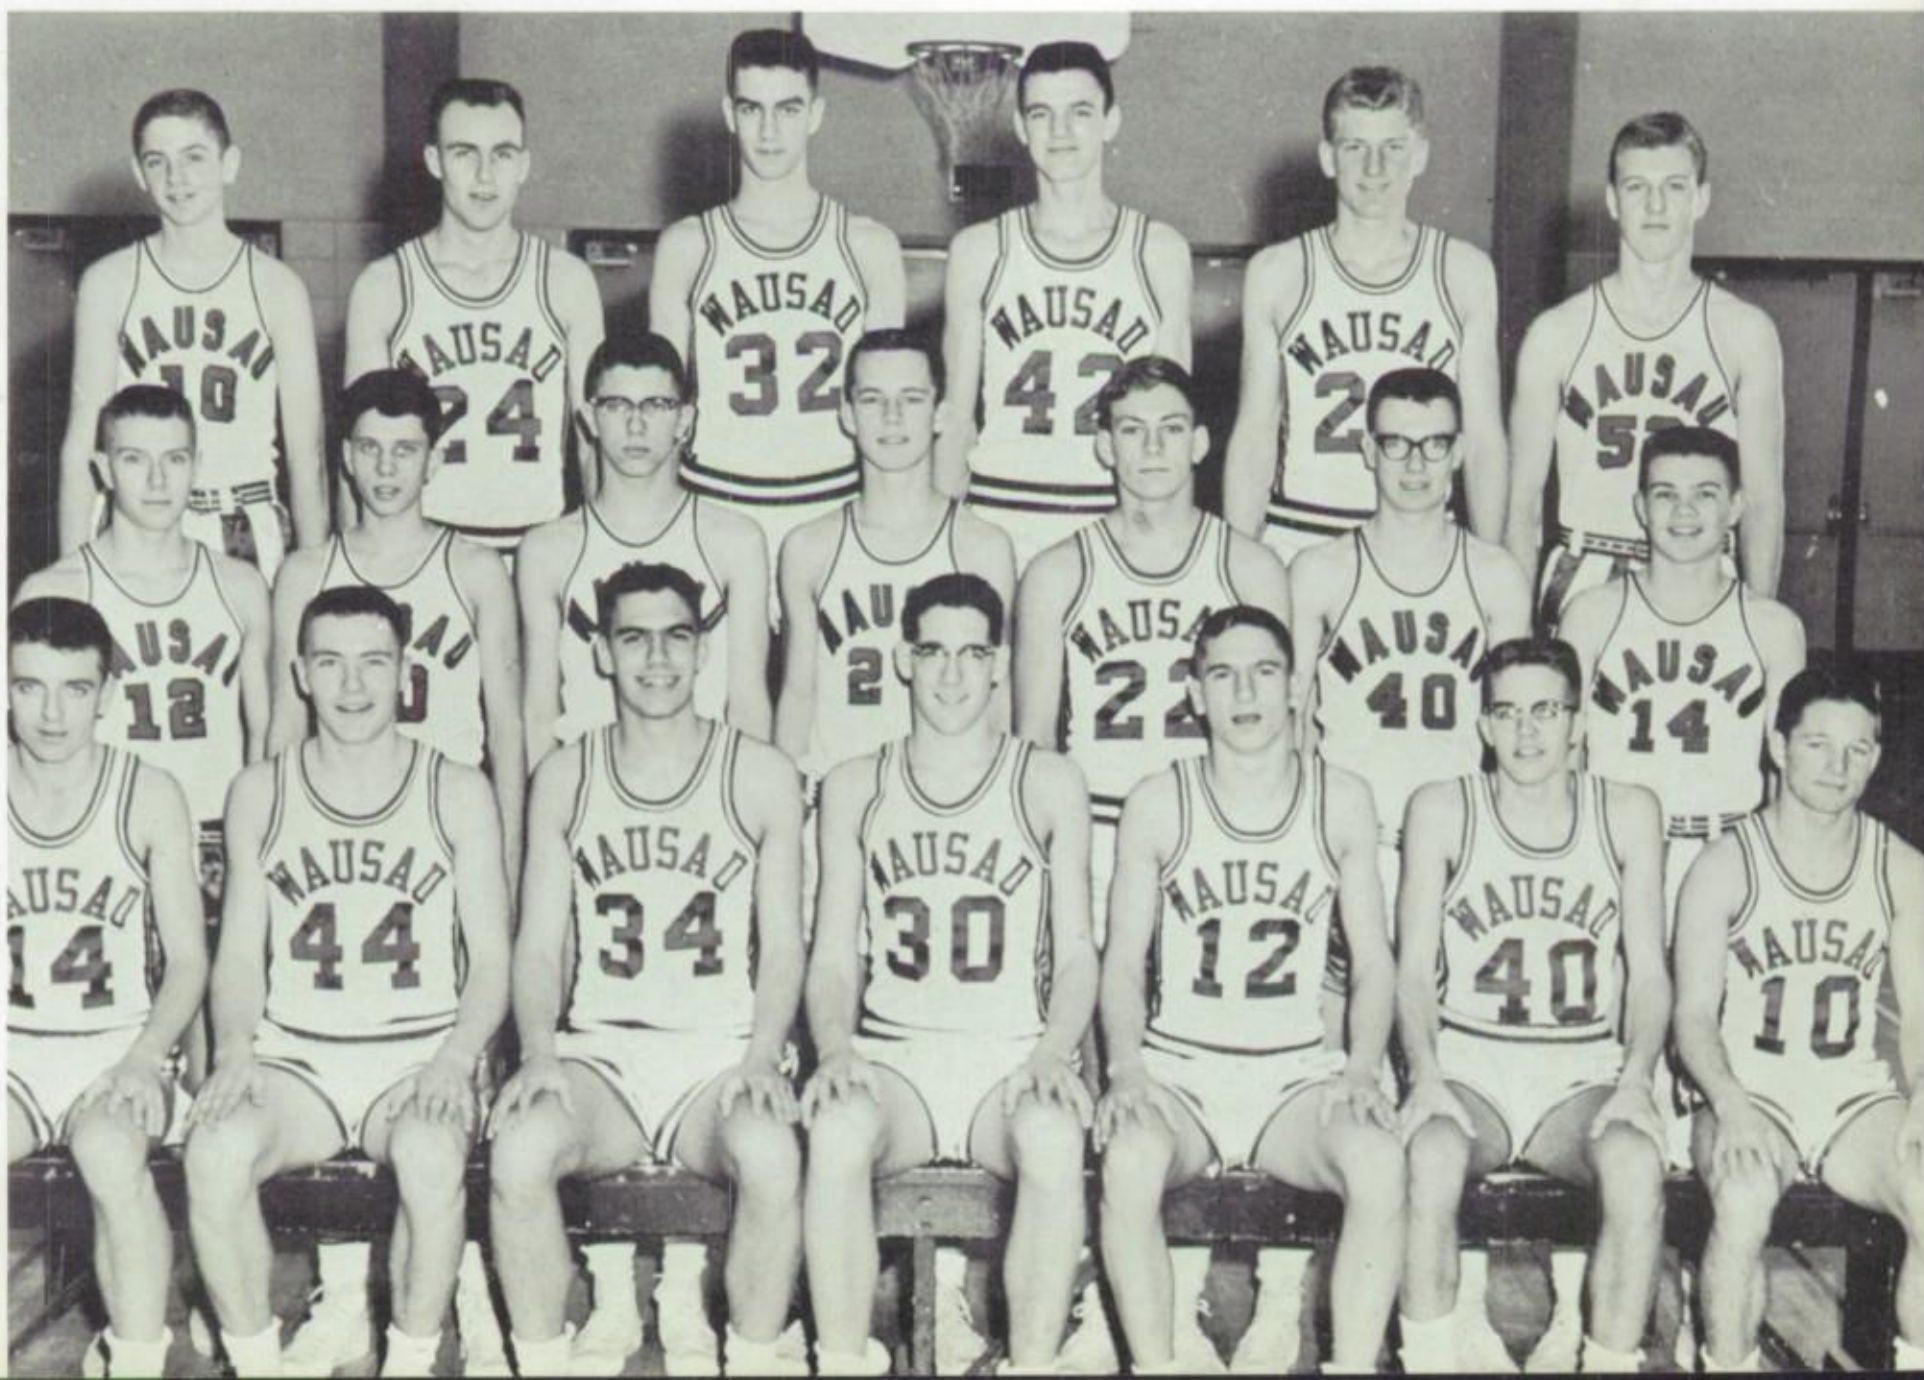

Returning lettermen Ronald Fish, Allen Kuehl, John Linster, Ken Schiefelbein, and Jim Severson should give the team added experience for next year.

VARSITY WRESTLING . . .

The season got off to a slow start with a 42 to 5 pasting by Stevens Point, but the squad quickly redeemed itself by beating the perennially powerful Wisconsin Rapids team by scores of 30 to 23 and a close 25 to 22. Although the season record was 3 won and 7 lost, this was the first year for wrestling as a regular sport after a one year layoff. The team was handicapped in its dual matches throughout the season by having to forfeit the 103 pound weight class, and by inexperience in many of the other weight classes. The Varsity squad was composed of 4 sophomores, 2 juniors and 4 seniors. As the season progressed there was a noticeable improvement in the performance of the squad, particularly among the sophomores. Gene Woller was quite impressive in the 165 pound class as he entered the Regional tournament at Wisconsin Rapids and won his first two matches against some boys with excellent records. Pat Mangene was the lone member of the team to make it to the state tournament at Madison. Pat took the Regional 180 pound championship, and placed second in the Sectionals. The overall season, while not impressive from the point of view of wins and losses, did provide the fans with some thrilling moments. With 6 lettermen returning next year this nucleus for the 1962-63 squad should provide even more exciting matches.

Pat Mangene who wrestled in the 180 pound class was the only Wausau wrestler to make it to the state meet. He placed 2nd in the sectionals before continuing on to state.

Ski Team Wins Fifth State Title

Wausau High continued as the only school ever to win the WIAA State Ski Meet since its formation five years ago.

Wausau accumulated a point score of 489.2 to take top honors. Hurley was second-best with 575.3, and Madison West took third with 708.3.

Scoring is based on the best combined performance (downhill and slalom competition) of the top four boys on each team.

The top individual was Larry Funk. He had a combined time of 97.0 seconds, more than ten seconds better than the runnerup, Henry Gilbertson of Hurley. Third high individual was Pete Klein of Wausau with 117.6.

Funk also had the best slalom and downhill times. His best slalom run was 33.4 and his downhill time was 23.4. Jim Carter ended up in third place in downhill, coming in less than a second behind the second place skier.

The combined scores of Funk, Klein, Jackson, and Carter made up Wausau's final team score. Bob Reynolds skied as the fifth man for the Jacks.

The only other meet that Wausau participated in this season was a triangular with Rhinelander and Lakeland also entered.

In the combined downhill and slalom, Wausau won the meet with 392 seconds, and placed four skiers in the top ten. Funk took first place honors, while Carter came in third, Ostrander, fourth, and Jackson fifth. Rhinelander came in second with 442.3 and Lakeland's team took third, having 521.1.

SWIM SQUAD . . .

Wausau High swimming swung into its second year with a full competitive season. The team was coached by Duane Miller, physical education instructor at John Muir Junior High. Although the team won no meets this year, it has come a long way in the eyes of the coach. "In every meet we've been stronger than previously, and we're only losing two seniors this year. We should be much stronger next year," said the coach. Terwilliger in the distance, Schroth in the butterfly, and Lewis in the breaststroke should be singled out for outstanding performances and are expected to be the mainstays in the squad next year.

STANDING: Coach Johnson, Kinney, Carle, Schleuter, Hendrickson, Ullrich, Sanders, Johnson, Goetsch, Evans, Ingalia, Funk, Ramthun, Devantier, Gall, Hoesley, Langlois, Forester, Hertz, Brockman, Kutchera, Krueger, Eggebrecht, Christian.

Coach Johnson Completes 15th Year As Curling Coach

Curling at Wausau High began its 15th year with 36 boys participating in the sport. Eight full rinks played a round robin of games on Tuesday and Thursday nights. The winner of the Lattimer-Gress trophy was the Dan Seehafer rink. Curling on this rink was Mike Siegel, 3rd; John Ullrich, 2nd; and Gary Carle, lead.

In the newly organized Mid-Wisconsin High School Curling League, the Dick Roe rink tied for the championship along with Port Edwards with a 3 wins and 1 loss record. Curling with Roe were Dan Seehafer, 3rd; Mike Siegel, 2nd; and Robert Hertz, lead.

TOP: Paul Devantier, Jane Tallor, Earl Mielke, and Jaci Duranceau won first event honors in the mixed bonspiel.

BOTTOM: The winners of the second event were James Colby, Missy Foreen, Dale Schlueter, and Mary Juneau.

The club participated in four bonspiels and the state playdowns. The John Buzza rink won the second event in the Wausau Invitational, where 24 rinks from 12 schools took part. In the Madison Bonspiel, the Dick Roe rink won the 3rd event from the strong Steele rink of Lodi.

In the Leadman's bonspiel, the first event was won by the Dale Schlueter rink with the Charles Donner rink winning second honors and the Tom Kinney rink winning the 3rd event.

In the mixed bonspiel, 12 rinks were entered with the first event winners being the Earl Mielke rink, the second event winners were the James Colby rink and the consolation of 3rd event honors went to the Mike Siegel rink.

Coach Johnson (standing) along with Mike Siegel, and Bob Hertz, (also standing) and Dick Roe and Dan Seehafer (kneeling) make up Wausau High's traveling team. This is the group that took the third event at Madison's Invitational Bonspiel.

Jerry Goetsch (above) again repeated as chess champ. Jim Colby placed second in the tournament. Chess requires much time and thought to be able to play the game well.

Ken Goetsch (at left) conquered the tables to capture the W.H.S. individual ping-pong championship. Only by combining his skill and coordination was Ken able to become ping pong champ.

W.H.S. INTRAMURALS

Within the walls of Wausau Senior High School, an intramurals program is conducted each year by Al Gabriliska. It is through his efforts that the intramural program has become so popular and successful. Each year he sets up a basketball tournament, bowling, ping pong, chess, checkers, caroms, and volleyball.

Riccardo Starace and Gary Kieffer (above) won honors as the top team in the doubles ping pong contest. George Nelson repeated as an intramural winner. However, this year he won the crown in a different sport. He was the individual winner in carems.

The Anderson catchers, Marv, and Paul, carried the catching load this season.
 Wausau sluggers: Mortenson, Schiefelbein, Fish, Severson.

John Buch, outfielder, goes up for a hot blue darter.

Heads up All! Lynn Prehn is trying to get cuts.

Noon Hour Activities . . .

Long noon hours were shortened by organized activities throughout the building. Games such as ping pong, cards, dartball, checkers, caroms, chess, and basketball were enjoyed by those wishing to participate.

Mr. Burton and Roger Deffner sold candy every noon in the new cafeteria.

Dave Smit, who is next in line, doesn't seem to have his mind on the meal ahead.

Mr. Torresani (left) and Mr. Gabriliska put the boys through their paces. This was one of the first gym classes held in the new unit.

Healthier Bodies Stressed in Physical Education

Boy's "phy ed" classes follow the seasons as do the intra-scholastic sports. Early in the fall the boys play touch football and soccer. Then when the snow begins to fly, they switch off between basketball, tumbling, and working on the apparatus.

After Christmas, volleyball, wrestling and badminton are taken up. Shortly after spring vacation, softball, track, tennis, and golf take the spotlight.

By this time, these husky individuals are well conditioned for their final gym test.

Physical fitness plays an important role in everyone's life.

Wausau High's top bowler, Terry Kennedy.

This team won top honors in the intramural bowling contest. The team members are: Joe Piette, Gary Urmanski, Bob Stolze, Marty Dettmering. Missing is Bob Nowitzke.

W.H.S. Cheerleaders Win U. S. Grand Championship

After winning the United States Cheerleaders Association Grand Championship at College Camp in Williams Bay last summer, the varsity cheerleaders returned to Wausau High and its new gym and started off the year with the initiation of the "new" school spirit. The cheerleaders set up a new constitution made up of many things that they had learned at camp.

During the summer the cheerleaders practiced four hours a week, and during the school year an hour and a half. Numerous pep assemblies and skits were presented to the student body during the football, basketball, track, baseball, and tennis seasons.

The Pep Club, headed by the Commissioners of Pep—Mary Chrouser and Liz Seidel, participated in various activities to promote pep. Hex Day and Red and White Day were introduced this year during Wausau Week. The cheerleaders ended the year by combining with a group of faculty members to select next year's varsity cheerleaders.

Co-Commissioners of Pep, Liz Seidel and Mary Chrouser, discuss poster plans with Pep Club advisors, Miss Satter and Miss McGuire.

The objective of this year's Girl's Athletic Association was to provide enough activities so that each member would be active in at least one sport. This group has grown steadily, and this year reached a total membership of three hundred and forty-five. Along with the growing membership the activities had also grown. Singles badminton and archery were added to an already crowded and popular program, and plans are being made to add more and more activities. Annual tournaments were conducted in bowling, table tennis singles, badminton doubles, volleyball, basketball, free throws, curling, golf, and softball.

Membership was open to all girls at Wausau Senior High. Awards of emblems and gold silver medals were presented to all the championship teams and to winners of single and dual events.

Activities are conducted by the senior heads of sports and their junior assistants under the supervision of a woman faculty member. The tournaments take place after school and during the noon hour.

SKYROCKET . . .

Room 208—popularly known as the Skyrocket Office—can be identified by clicking typewriters, constant laughter, and the strong smell of rubber cement.

The Skyrocket is published every three weeks, following a definite schedule. Assignments out on Tuesday, in on Friday (supposedly); pictures taken in the meantime. Copy prepared and headlined during the week, sent to press on Friday; more copy to press on Monday, returned on Wednesday. Then the work started. At around five o'clock the "Dummy" sheets were finally pasted and rushed to press before they locked their doors. Friday was the day of satisfaction—1800 Skyrockets were delivered.

. . . 1962 WAHISCAN

The 46th volume of the Wahiscan has come a long way from the "horse and buggy" days of the WHS annual. Since that first issue, the Wahiscan has increased in size and quality to become the pride of all WHS students. Through the able contributions of the editorial and business staffs, the advisors, and photographers, the '62 annual should continue this tradition and provide a memorable record of that wonderful year.

GAA OFFICERS and SENIOR HEADS

ROW 2: Winetzki, Balz, Roe, Kann, Smith, Revie, Hickey, Rahn.
ROW 1: Marek, Gjetson, Schade, Paul, Felch, Juneau.

The Girls' Athletic Association was directed by Miss Becker and her assistants Miss Tank, Miss Gibson, and Miss Moody. Sue Hickey and Marta Schade served as co-presidents; Ellen Balz as vice president, and Georgiana Smith as secretary. The senior heads and their respective heads were: Mary Sue Winetzki, badminton; Pat Roe, bowling; Kathy Kann, volleyball; Karen Revie, basketball; Donna Rahn, baseball; Sylvia Marek, table tennis; Mary Juneau, golf; Missy Foreen, curling. Mary Gjetson was elected program chairman; Shirley Paul, Waugonian Council representative; and Elaine Felch, publicity chairman.

Uthrotar consists of outstanding junior and senior boys selected by a faculty committee on the basis of their service to the school and participation in school activities. These boys attend Rotary meetings which are held every Monday noon. The boys chose partners and each set represented our school at the Rotary meetings for a month, thus the present businessmen of Wausau were given the chance to meet the future businessmen. Mr. Ridge served as faculty advisor to this group.

ROW 2: Torney, Sternberg, Sleeter, Schultz, Barton, Starace, Buzza, Forester, Cyr.

BADGER BOYS AND GIRLS

BADGER BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

Badger Boys' and Girls' State gave outstanding juniors the opportunity to take a closer look at our state government. Throughout the week the students attended lectures, political forums, caucuses, and local, county, and state meetings. The highlight of the session was the election of state officials and the convening of the "Congress". Girls' State was held on the University of Wisconsin campus in Madison and Boys' State on the Ripon College campus in Ripon.

ROW 3: Boatman, Huck, Ubbelohde, Kuether, Mathisen, Yonke, Fehl, Revie.

ROW 2: Rothman, Radloff, Carspecken, M. Erdman, B. Erdman, Burk, Payne, West.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is an honorary organization for all those who excel in some literary work, be it newspaper or yearbook publication. To achieve this honor one must be either of junior or senior classification and be in the upper third of his class. Because of their superior work in writing, editing, selling advertising, or managing a publication, they were recommended by one of the four publications advisors and approved by the national secretary.

VOICE OF THE STUDENTS

COMMISSIONERS

Ellen Ostring, Commissioner of Finance; Marta Schade, Commissioner of School Affairs; Gary Ernst, Commissioner of Publicity; Mary Chrouser, Commissioner of Pep; Liz Seidel, Commissioner of Pep; Tina Drott, Commissioner of Social Affairs.

Under the capable guidance of Tom Tinkham and Mary Chrouser the Student Council had a very active year. Among the major activities were the candy sale, the Junior Red Cross drive, the selection of assembly programs for the next year, planning all-school dances and football hops, and the American Field Service collection. Special committees were set up to look into the matter of an examination week and the improvement of our noon hour program. The council sponsored two Dress-up Days. One was on the final day of school before Christmas vacation, and the other was on Good Friday. The council once again continued the safe driving campaign and cautioned students in this matter. A great deal of time was spent in planning the State Student Council Convention which will be held in Wausau next year. Work on this committee will continue throughout the summer.

SECOND SEMESTER STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS
 Penny Gease, secretary; Mary Chrouser, president; John Prigge, vice president.

ROW 1: A. Prehn, Burnett, Voigt, Krueger, Schade, Neitzke, Gray, L. Prehn, Drott, Schmidt, Poppe, Kretkowski.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The students who give their time and effort to serve on the Student Council are the voice of the student body from which they are elected. Their most important task is to see that the ideas brought to them as well as their own ideas reach the Student Council. When these ideas do reach the Student Council, it is the council's duty to see that they are considered and acted upon.

Aside from this task, the Student Council has many activities to support. The various commissions take care of school spirit, school publicity, homecoming activities, dances and hops, and Student Council finances. The Student Council also has the power to create committees for the purpose of dealing with contemporary ideas or problems. This also makes it responsive to the present needs and demands of the student body. All of these duties which the Student Council has undertaken are designed to help make our school the kind of school in which we can feel we belong and in which we can take great pride.

Members Study . . .

MUSIC CLUB—The Music Club offered the students an opportunity to listen to recordings of all periods in the history of music. The club's musical survey covered a wide variety of selections ranging from Buddy Holly to Bartok. The dues supplied some of the funds needed to purchase recordings and other necessary supplies. The membership was limited to the seating capacity of the music room. Members found the programs entertaining and educational. Mr. McDonell was the advisor.

GERMAN CLUB—Elected as officers were Bob Stack, president, Gary Kieffer, vice president, and Mary Hood, secretary-treasurer. At the first two meetings, members learned German folk songs. A Christmas program consisted of a talk by Mary Hood on Christmas in Germany and the singing of German carols. At the first meeting in February club members had the experience of playing a German word game known as "Password" in America. At a later meeting the slides which Miss Satter took in Austria and Germany were shown. The German Club (Das Deutsche Verein) was under the direction of Miss Garson.

. . . Cultures and Histories

FRENCH CLUB: The French Club (Le Cercle Francais) met with Mrs. Scheurman for programs of French music, games, special reports, and a trip to the University Extension Center to visit the language laboratory. Along with studying French customs, the students had a Christmas party, celebrating in the French style. The main event of the year was the club's participation in the International Night program with a skit written, produced, and directed by the members. The club, consisting of first and second year French students, elected Peter Kline, president, Gary Raasch, vice president, and Toni Marcis secretary.

SPANISH CLUB: The Spanish Club (El Club de e spanol) aimed at developing a broader knowledge of the customs, cultures, and civilizations of the Spanish-speaking countries. Helping the club to achieve this goal were several speakers including Elena Molina, a Guatemalan student now attending Newman High School, Carol Blackford and Tuck Mallory who recently traveled in Mexico, and Ricardo Starace, our exchange student from Italy. Putting their knowledge of customs to use, the club had parties and took part in the International Foreign Language Week program held every spring. The Spanish Club was under the supervision of Miss Bonvincin.

ROW 3: Goetsch, Lewis, Yelich, Myszka, Kuehl, Plano, Jackson.

ASTRONOMY CLUB—Members of the Astronomy Club took an active interest in the Universe. Each member was given the opportunity to present a talk on a specific subject and lead the discussion which followed. Various phases of astronomy including the positions of stars and planets and the coming of eclipses were discussed. Tom Tinkham served as president, Robert Mohr as vice-president, and Susan Morrow as secretary-treasurer. The club was directed by Mr. Ridge.

CHEMISTRY CLUB—This club, under the direction of Mr. Harry Johnson and Mr. Arthur Hageman, was organized to bring outstanding programs for the members. Some of the programs included an exhibit of diamonds and a demonstration of the Drunk-Ometer. The December meeting consisted of the annual Caramel Apple sale. This year the sale netted the club sufficient money to donate $100 to the newly formed Edward Thiel Scholarship Fund.

Students Strengthen Knowledge

BIOLOGY CLUB—The biology club, under the direction of Miss Satter and Mr. Dix, was open to all students possessing a keen interest in the study of living things. Included in this year's programs were slides showing a biology summer school at work in the Black Hills; a movie showing life as it exists in a marsh habitat; a discussion of the human body using a model torso for demonstration; a trip to a funeral home; as well as reports by members on subjects of interest. The members elected Judy Zaiss, Karen Hochtritt, and Barbara McDaniel as president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer respectively.

PHYSICS CLUB—The physics club was presided over by Bob Mathisen who, with the help of the program committee, provided the club with an interesting variety of programs. The club members learned of some of the aspects of present day research physics, discussed Civil Defense with Col. Egdahl, visited the local offices of the General Telephone Company, and visited the local electric station. Secretary Mary Kaye Radloff recorded the doings of the club and Richard Christian kept the club solvent so that the annual contribution to the Waugonian scholarship fund could be made. Mr. Berg and Mr. O'Hearn were the advisors.

ROW 3: Stack, Christian, Deffner, Kuehl, Seehafer, Boyle, Mathisen, Hahn, Holster, King.
ROW 2: Lerch, Boehmer, Sleeter, Bost, Colby, Boneck, Kroening, Blair.
ROW 1: Bush, Church, Jenson, Hablewitz, Radloff, Holzfuss, Hieb.

SKI CLUB—The Ski Club was concerned with ski techniques, developments in equipment, latest skiing apparel, and general promotion of the sport. This information was obtained through films and guest speakers. Riccardo Starace presented an interesting comparison between skiing in Italy and skiing here on Rib Mountain. Each year the club plans a ski trip. This year the members selected Indian Head as the site for this activity. Miss Bonvincin served as the club advisor.

CURLING CLUB—Curling as a high school sport spent its fifteenth year here and each year at least thirty-two boys participate. A round robin was played and the winners of the Tuesday and Thursday league played for the championship. The boys participated in bonspiels at Poyette, Portage, Madison, and Wausau. This year Wausau was a member of the newly organized Mid-Wisconsin Curling League composed of rinks from Medford, Port Edwards, Stevens Point, and Wau-paca. Mr. Harry Johnson served as advisor and coach.

Music Minded Students Enjoy Group Singing

CHOIR—The Choir spent a busy but enjoyable year under the direction of Miss Pierce. The members participated in three Christmas programs. They were at the Kiwanis Club, First American State Bank, and our own school program. A choir ensemble performed at the second semester Student Council installation. At the Antigo meet in March nine ensembles and fourteen soloists appeared and won honors. Barbara Hoffmann won a chance to go on to the state meet in Madison.

The Choir appeared at Horace Mann Junior High and presented an assembly program. The performance at the Baccalaureate service brought a very busy year to an end. The GIRLS GLEE CLUB has been in a reorganization program building for a "performance" group. Many types of songs were learned with the emphasis on American music. This year the Glee Club was divided into two sections.

THE TOPHATTERS ... 1962

Many, many hours of practice and planning were put in to turn out a topnotch program. The Tophatters worked hard everyday for approximately eleven weeks to await the big moment in their lives. The first notes of the theme, "Serenade to a Zombie", were heard at 7:30 P.M. on Wednesday, January 17th. Many people worked with the group including Mr. McDonell, our advisor, who worked the hardest. The Tophatters is a unique organization in that it is the only stage band in this area. The students in the band have had an opportunity to play a different type of music usually not associated with high school music, and that type is jazz.

STEVE NAGLER
Drum Major

Majorettes—clockwise and center: Zastrow, Kleberg, Rolfson, Chrouser, Marek, Klaprat, Revie, Rahn.

The orchestra, under the new director Mr. Riege, studied music from the pre-classic, classic, romantic and neo-romantic periods. Added to this was some impressionistic music as well as some currently popular American show tunes.

The activities of the orchestra included a parent's concert, a spring concert, festival work, and participation in the Messiah, the Christmas program, and the Baccalaureate and graduation exercises.

The pep band, directed by Mr. McDonell, presented entertaining half-time activities at both football and basketball games. The band worked together with the cheerleaders and the glove section to provide added pep and color at the games. The majorettes worked hard on their routines as did the drum major, Steve Nagler, and his assistant, Jim Bundy.

The entire band also worked hard on festival numbers.

Clubs Promote Commercial Interest

SENIOR GREGG—The President, Shirley Zastrow, had the responsibility of planning and organizing the meetings. She aimed for a varied program on business and travel. Speakers were invited to the club to give first-hand information about a stenographic job. Interesting discussions were built around the materials presented to the club. Guests showed slides on travel, and these were used to give students ideas for their first hard earned vacation.

JUNIOR GREGG—The Junior Gregg Club, under the direction of Miss Knaak, had a very interesting year. Members of the club became well aware of the importance of personal care in the field of secretarial work. Thus they decided on a personal improvement course for the year. Among the speakers who appeared before the club were students from the Wausau Beauty School. For the last meeting of the year the club members had a party.

Clubs Provide School Service

PROJECTIONIST CLUB—One of the most important service clubs in school is the Projectionist Club. Under the direction of Mr. Staats the members are trained in operating projectors and recorders along with the other audio-visual equipment. Students volunteer their services by operating machines during their free periods, club periods, and the noon hour.

CAMERA CLUB—The Camera Club spent an enjoyable year under Mr. Shawl's direction. At one meeting the club saw and discussed the Ansco-Scholastic high school award winning pictures of last year. A field trip to the Toburen Studio was of great interest as was the talk presented by Ray Toburven on cameras and pictures.

Of the nineteen forensic winners in the local contest, eight went on and received the highest award—an "A" rating at the state contest. These students were Anne Prehn and Ann Heinzen in four-minute speaking; Mary Chrouser in non-original oratory; and Dave Onheiber, Missy Foreen, Bob Cyr, Jan Hettinga, and Orrin Vanderwarker competing as a group in oral play reading. All students active in forensics received the valuable experience of performing before a group and developing poise and self-confidence.

VARSITY DEBATE . . .

The Varsity Debaters spent one of the most successful seasons in the history of our school. Wausau emerged as the winner of the Eau Claire College Discussion meet, the Merrill Invitational meet, and the official District and Sectional Tournaments of the Wisconsin High School Forensic Association. For the twentieth successive year Wausau won its way to the state finals where it tied for second place with a record of six wins and two losses. During the course of the season the varsity debaters won ninety per cent of their debates. Four members competing in the junior varsity division of the Interstate Tournament won first place and thus gained permanent possession of a trophy as a result of Wausau's having won it for three successive years. These members were Jean Miller, Dave Smit, Jim Bundy, and John Buzza. The junior varsity also won ninety per cent of its debates.

All senior members of the squad were elected to the National Forensic League which is the honor society for excellence in debate. Mary Chrouser was captain of the affirmative squad and Nancy Klaprat and Tom Tinkham were co-captains of the negative squad.

JUNIOR DEBATE SQUAD

ROW 2: Bundy, Schilling, Buzza.

SOPHOMORE DEBATE—Eighty sophomores, the largest number in the history of our school, turned out for sophomore debate. Informal discussions were some of the activities engaged in by the sophomore group. This large number was later reduced to the official squad of twenty people. Both sophomore and varsity debate squads were coached by E. C. Marquardt.

ROW 3: King, Seehafer, Grade, Smit, Borchardt, Schewe, Boyle, Thomasgard, Giese.
 ROW 2: Plisch, K. Hahn, K. Goetsch, J. Goetsch, D. Hahn, Deffner, Malzahn, Baeseman.
 ROW 1: Reynolds, Nelson, Palmer, Barton, Lemma, Wendt, Roehl.

ADVANCED MATH CLUB—The Advanced Math Club, advised by Mr. Luttrell, began the year with a three session unit on mathematical logic. Later the members toured the National Cash Register Company and City Hall where they saw and discussed large computers and business machines. They also saw a film on computers. For the final meetings speakers from the local Extension Center were invited to appear before the club. The club sponsors the Local-State Math Contest which is open to students enrolled in algebra IV, trigonometry, or math analysis. The officers of the club were: president, Jerry Goetsch; vice president, Dave Connor; secretary, George Nelson; and reporter, Dave Smit.

ROW 2: Seidler, Tomczak, Seeman, North.
 ROW 1: Sydow, Davitt, Williams, Clark.

GENERAL MATH CLUB—This club, under the direction of Mr. Luttrell, is perhaps better known by its former name, the Slide-Rule Club. It is open to all students not yet enrolled in algebra III and IV or the senior math courses. The first four meetings were spent in learning to use the slide rule. A strip film from the Armed Forces was used as were the actual slide rules. Questions from the Local-State Math Contest given in previous years were discussed at the final club meeting. The officers were: president, Cathy Clark; vice president, Wilma Deicher; secretary, Neal Seidler.

Clubs Boost Home and World Relations

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB—This club, supervised by Mrs. Sekel and Mrs. Kloes, is shown above assembled in the Model Home. The club sponsored two fund raising events. The first was a Christmas sale at which handmade decorations were sold, and the second was a bake sale. The money was turned over to the Waugonian Council for scholarship purposes. Members of the club served at various meetings and banquets, one of which was the annual FFA Parents' and Sons' Banquet. Officers for the club were: president, Elaine Felch; vice president, Darlene Parsch; secretary, Jean Tessmer; treasurer, Judy Marcott.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB—This club, a new one in our school, had a very successful year under the direction of Mr. Reynolds and Mr. Stade. The activities consisted mainly of speeches and discussions on international affairs. Special attention was paid to the American Field Service program. The club sponsored AFS Week, during which a dance was sponsored and a collection taken from the student body to obtain funds for the local AFS program. During this week Tom Tinkham presented an assembly program on his trip to Brazil. Elena Molina, an exchange student from Guatemala who is now attending Newman High School, spoke at one of the meetings.

Students Prepare For Future Goals Now

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB—The Future Teachers of America Club, meeting with Mr. Swenby, guidance counselor, sponsored several projects to raise money for a teaching scholarship. Among them were the sale of candy and school stationery. The club members served the school by helping at senior high P.T.A. nights and assisting with kindergarten registration at various grade schools. They also performed a service to the teaching profession by helping at the spring Wausau Educational Association convention held at our school. Monthly meetings included speakers who brought the members additional information on the teaching field.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB—The Future Nurses of America Club, advised by Mrs. Cronkhite, school nurse, provided girls with an opportunity to explore the field of nursing and health. Meetings included talks given by a student nurse and a licensed practical nurse and various movies through which the members learned more about our community. Among the club projects were candy sales for raising a one-hundred dollar nursing scholarship and the adoption of grandmothers and grandfathers at Sunnyvale Manor by groups of four or five girls. These activities helped to carry out one of the club's main objectives — to grow as individuals by working together.

 ROW 1: (seated) Meidl, Shanak, Sonderegger, Koehler, Herman, Manowski, Butth, Dix, Richards, Erickson, Miller, Seiler, Meister, Maltbey, I. Gresens, Christian.

BOOK CLUB—The Book Club, under the advisor Miss Buchholz, aimed throughout the year to become better acquainted with our community and its contributions to our reading pleasure. Outstanding programs included a tour of the Record-Herald building, "European tour" via colored slides, and a book review on a current best seller. Members of the club also became acquainted with newly published magazines, especially those which our library carries. Officers of the club were: president, John Gresens; vice-president and program chairman, Larry Barton; and secretary, Patricia Richards.

DRAMA CLUB—The Drama Club spent an enjoyable year under the direction of Miss Stalmahoske. Arrangements were made for the members to attend two plays—The School for Scandal and Death of a Salesman. Several of the forensic winners presented their selections before the club. In an effort to bring Jacque Burdick from Madison to lecture to the club, members raised money by selling refreshments at the Christmas Dance. Bob Cyr, Orrin Vanderwarker, and Kay Cunningham served as president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer respectively.

"Arsenic and Old Lace"

Kasselring's Arsenic and Old Lace, a zany comedy, was the seniors' selection for their class play. The two old biddies, Abby and Martha, were delightfully portrayed by Liz Seidel and Pat Russell. Chuck Forester portrayed the comical Teddy Brewster who thought himself to be Teddy Roosevelt. Dave Smit assumed the role of Mortimer Brewster, the drama critic living in his own stable world until he discovers a body in the window seat. Taking on the roles of the hardened criminals, Jonathan Brewster and the misguided Dr. Einstein, were John Prigge and Orrin Vanderwarker. The play was a success both financially and in terms of audience appeal.

"The Taming of the Shrew"

William Shakespeare furnished material for the Spring Play at Wausau High in the form of "The Taming of the Shrew." Mary Chrouser characterized the Shrew, Katharina, destined to be tamed by Chuck Forester who played Petruchio. Dave Smit, as Baptista, gave money to have Katharina married and accepted money for the hand of his youngest daughter, Bianca (Eileen Nelson), who was sought by three, Lucentio (Chuck Trester) Tranio (Tuck Mallory), and the old Man Gremio (Robert Cyr). The action packed play was presented to the student body and was accepted in the mood given.

Pep Club Boosts WHS Spirit . . .

PEP CLUB—The Pep Club, with a membership of about 175 students, formed a glove section and pom-pom section that radiated enthusiasm at both football and basketball games. Club members also performed in skits for Homecoming Day programs and at numerous pep assemblies. During the meetings the club members were taught many new chants by the cheerleaders and had the wrestling team demonstrate various holds for them. The Pep Club ended the year with a picnic and the selection of next year's varsity cheerleaders. Officers for the year were Mary Chrouser and Liz Seidel, co-presidents; Dave Telder, vice president; Joann Marvin, secretary; Chuck Forester, treasurer; with Miss Satter and Miss McGuire as advisors.

ARCHERY CLUB—The Archery Club held a shoot at the Robin Hood Outdoor Range in September and the annual spring shoot in May. The major project for the year was a candy sale. There were enough profits to purchase the first target bales as part of a long range plan to have shooting facilities here at school. Club officers were Darrell Erdman, president; Dawn Prast, secretary; and Merry Zeeb, treasurer; Mr. Schumacher, advisor.

ART CLUB—The Art Club, supervised by Mr. Reinemann, offered students an opportunity to learn more about the works of art through slides, movies, and field trips. Club members enjoyed guest speakers who discussed art work and related careers. Meetings included a Christmas party at the Historical Society and an art sale. Although time did not permit actual art work to take place during the club meetings, short drawing periods were arranged. Club officers are Toni Marcis, president; Marie Grade, vice president; and Mary Ann Erdman, secretary.

Students Learn . . .

CONSERVATION CLUB—The boys of the Conservation Club worked under the advisor, Mr. Curtis. They provided the manpower for the work done at the school forest during the school year. They were involved in a variety of tasks such as pruning and thinning pine plantations, aiding in the construction of cabins for the Outdoor Education Program, improving the main club house, cutting Christmas trees and many others. In the spring the entire club spent one day at the forest planting trees and food shrubs for the improvement of wild-life habitat.

STAGE CREW—The Stage Crew, under the direction of Mr. Gjetson, provided valuable services for both in-school and out-of-school activities. The crew, composed of sophomores, junior, and senior boys, had the responsibility of constructing stage settings, providing lighting effects, operating the public address and recording systems, and handling the curtains and drops. Among the programs for which the Stage Crew provided services were the plays, Christmas program, Top-Hatters show, and the annual Stunt Night show. Don Gossage was Stage Manager during the first semester and Wayne Kurth the second.

of Future Vocational Opportunities

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA—The Wausau Senior High School Chapter of Future Farmers of America, commonly known as the FFA, is an organization of boys enrolled in vocational agriculture. The local chapter, under the direction of Mr. Hylkema, participated in crop and livestock judging contests, speech work, farm safety, and summer recreation and trips. The highlight of the year was the annual Fall Parents' and Sons' Banquet at which awards were given to all deserving members. Tom Kurth, State Sentinel, was a guest at the banquet.

JUNIOR DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION—Mr. Hylkema advised the Junior Dairymen's Association which is composed of agriculture students who are interested in promoting the dairy industry. Dairy herd testing and record keeping were the major activities of this organization. The local chapter is a member of the state association and participated in all the state activities. One of the highlights of the year was the training of a dairy demonstration team which participated in State Fair competition. The officers of the club were: president, Bob Naef; vice-president, Dan Dymora; secretary, Merlin Goetsch.

Wausau Dedicates New Gym Cafeteria

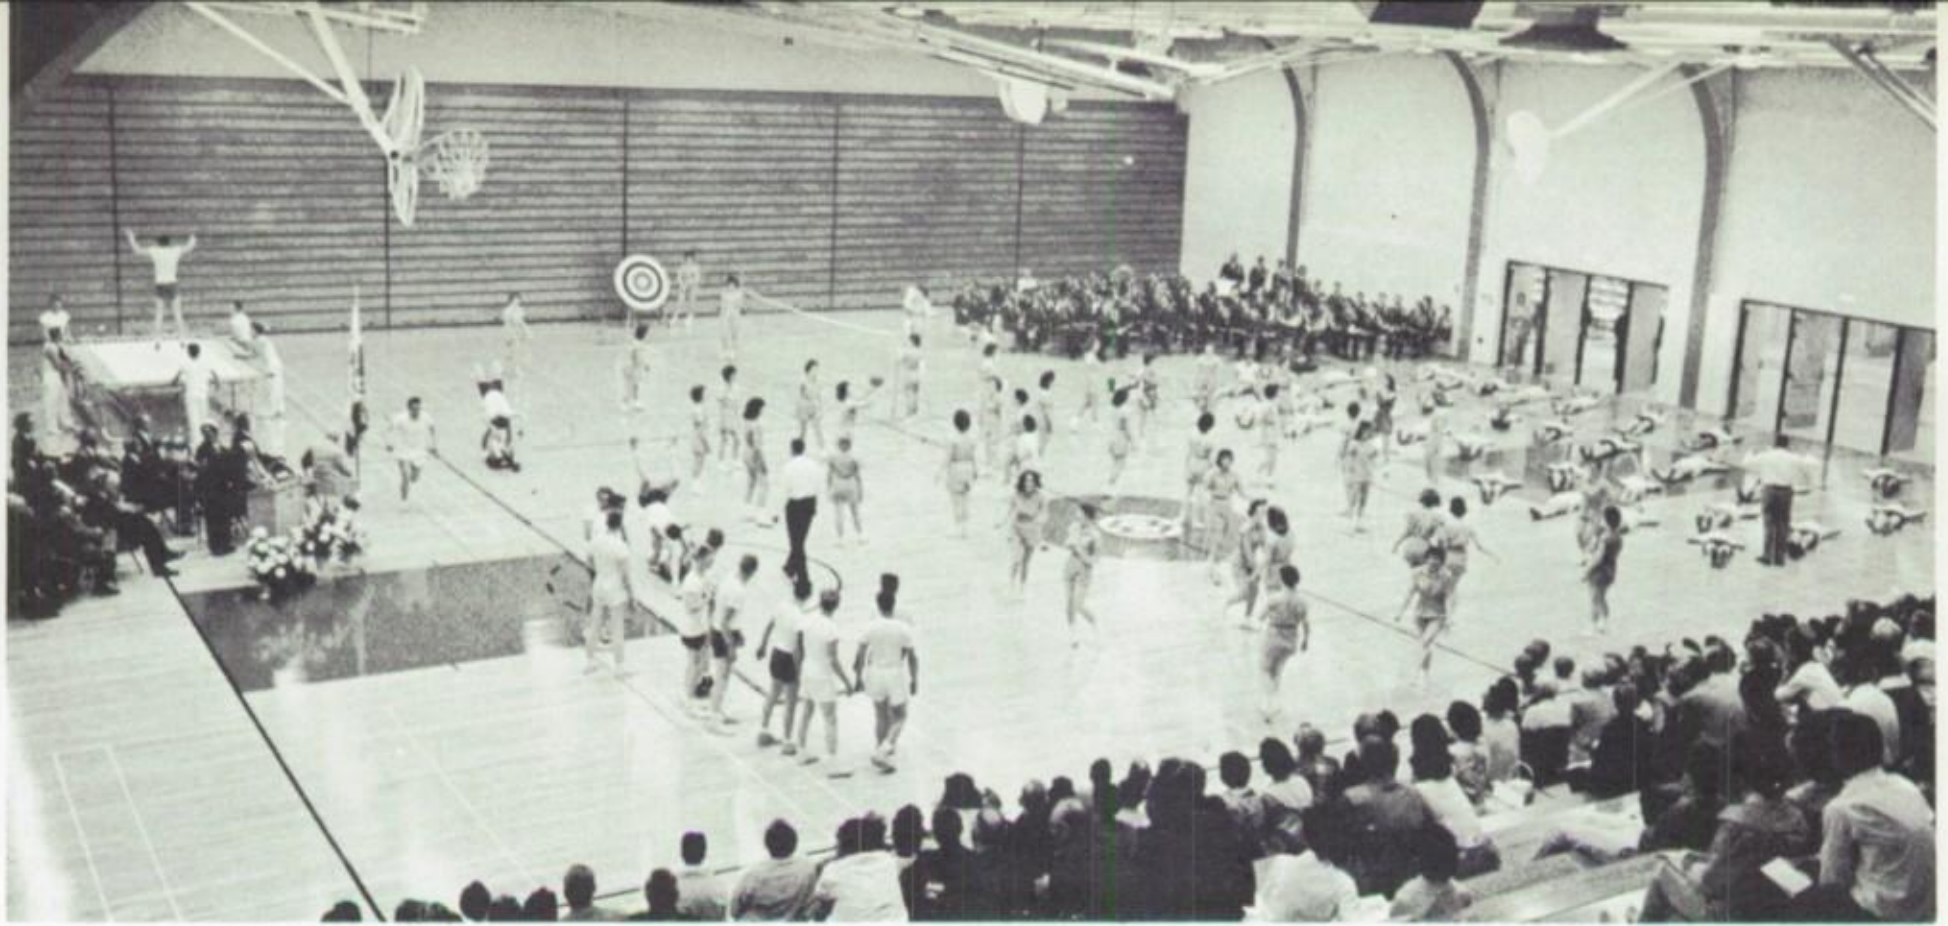

On May 24, 1961, the third unit of Wausau Senior High was dedicated. On that morning, the student body composed of 1700 students filed into the huge gymnasium (upper left) to hear the Student Council president, the Superintendent of Schools, and the President of the School Board dedicate this fine addition. The entire student body was seated with room to seat another 700 students. That same evening the public was invited to a special ceremony. Mayor Ben Schuck presented the keys to the unit to Fred Braun, President of the School Board. In addition, Coach Win Brockmeyer spoke of the new, widely varied and accelerated physical education program to be conducted in the new unit.

Local Citizens

Inspect Modern Facilities

After the program, local citizens were given a guided tour, and the many advantages and features of the new unit were exhibited. A group examines the kitchen and serving line (upper right), observing the most modern of facilities for cafeteria use. At the lower left, the new "All American" lockers with complete ventilation are displayed in one of the two main locker rooms. These locker rooms can be seen in the upper right part of the floor plan (opposite page).

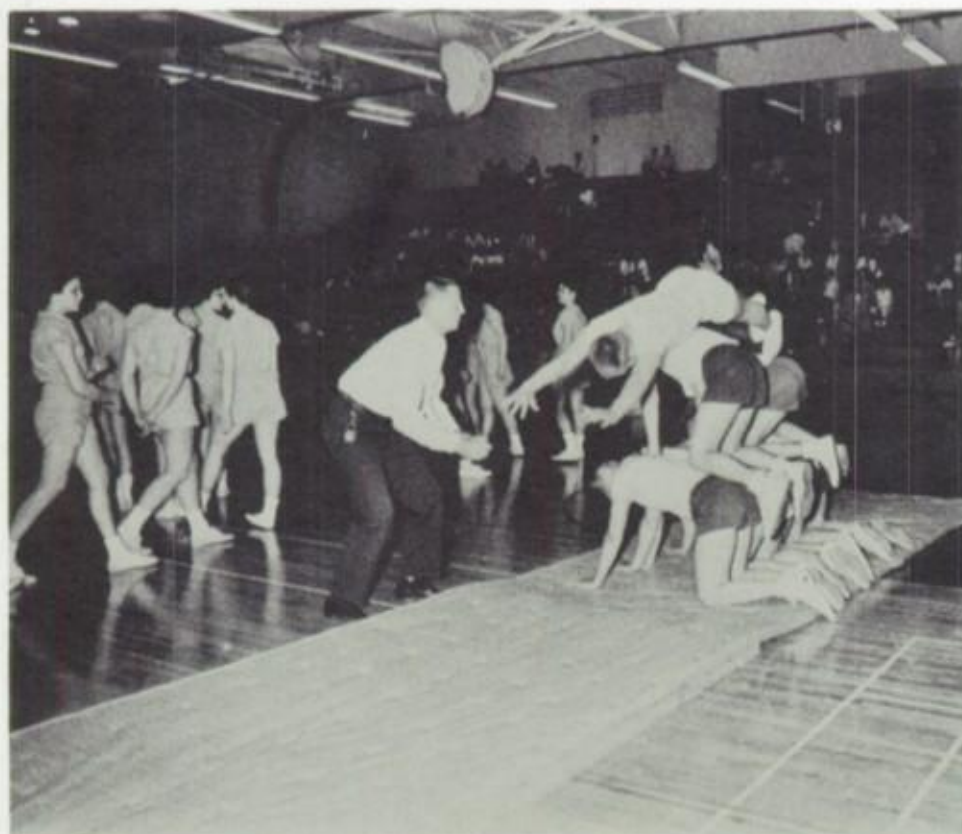

Gym Demonstration Highlights Program

Boys' and girls' physical education classes demonstrate the diversified activities that will be typical during regular class sessions. Girls jump rope, play badminton, and use the archery equipment while boys do calisthenics under the guidance of Al Gabriliska as the band and area residents watch. Tumbling exercises and trampoline work (pictured below) were also part of the program. The gym, measuring 108' by 146' is divided by a motorized curtain on track during actual classes. The telescopic bleachers are folded (upper left) during classes and unfolded (lower right) when the Jacks play.

Cost per cubic foot—83 cents

Lowell Johnson and his ace tumblers add to the excitement by performing extremely difficult stunts.

Gary Ernst heads skyward before summersaulting back to the trampoline.

FIRST SEMESTER MONITORS—ROW 4: B. Johnson, Zernicker, Utecht, Taylor, Koehler, Kraimer, Jauernig, Brandt, Brill, Rachu, P. Russell.

ROW 3: Kolbeck, Holsen, Monday, Kleiber, Blarek, Berna, Miracle, Maas, Fandre, Clure.

ROW 2: Meister, Ostrowski, Heise, Felch, Wesenick, Kufalk, Rainville, Schultz, Tessmer, Trempe.

ROW 1: Petri, Campbell, Vachowiak, Seefeldt, Streeter, Christian.

These People Render Valuable

MONITORS—Throughout the day as one goes through the halls of WHS, one would see certain people sitting alone, usually in a corner. These are the monitors of our school. When they are not studying, they are attending to such duties as carrying attendance slips, taking green passes to the office, delivering messages to and from the office, as well as guiding visitors through the school. Each and every monitor renders a valuable service to his school.

ROW 4: Nutter, Clark, Venske, Buth, Carmichael, Wasmundt, Allington, Anderson, Tessmer, Richey, Voeltzke, Hoff, Case.
 ROW 3: Wallach, Plischke, Winetzke, Landon, Johnson, Parsch, White, Felch, Koppa, Taylor, Gritzmacher, Marcott, Utecht.
 ROW 2: Garski, Buttke, Fandre, Torney, Roe, Kaplan, Wasmiller, Weinke, Kolbeck, Kleiber, Maas, Matushak, Berna.
 ROW 1: Burnett, North, Streeter, Radant, Hieb, Blus, Clure, Heise, Kundo.

WOMEN CUSTODIANS—Louze, Paszek, Roeder, Wekert, Borchardt. (Absent: Johnson, Sneed).

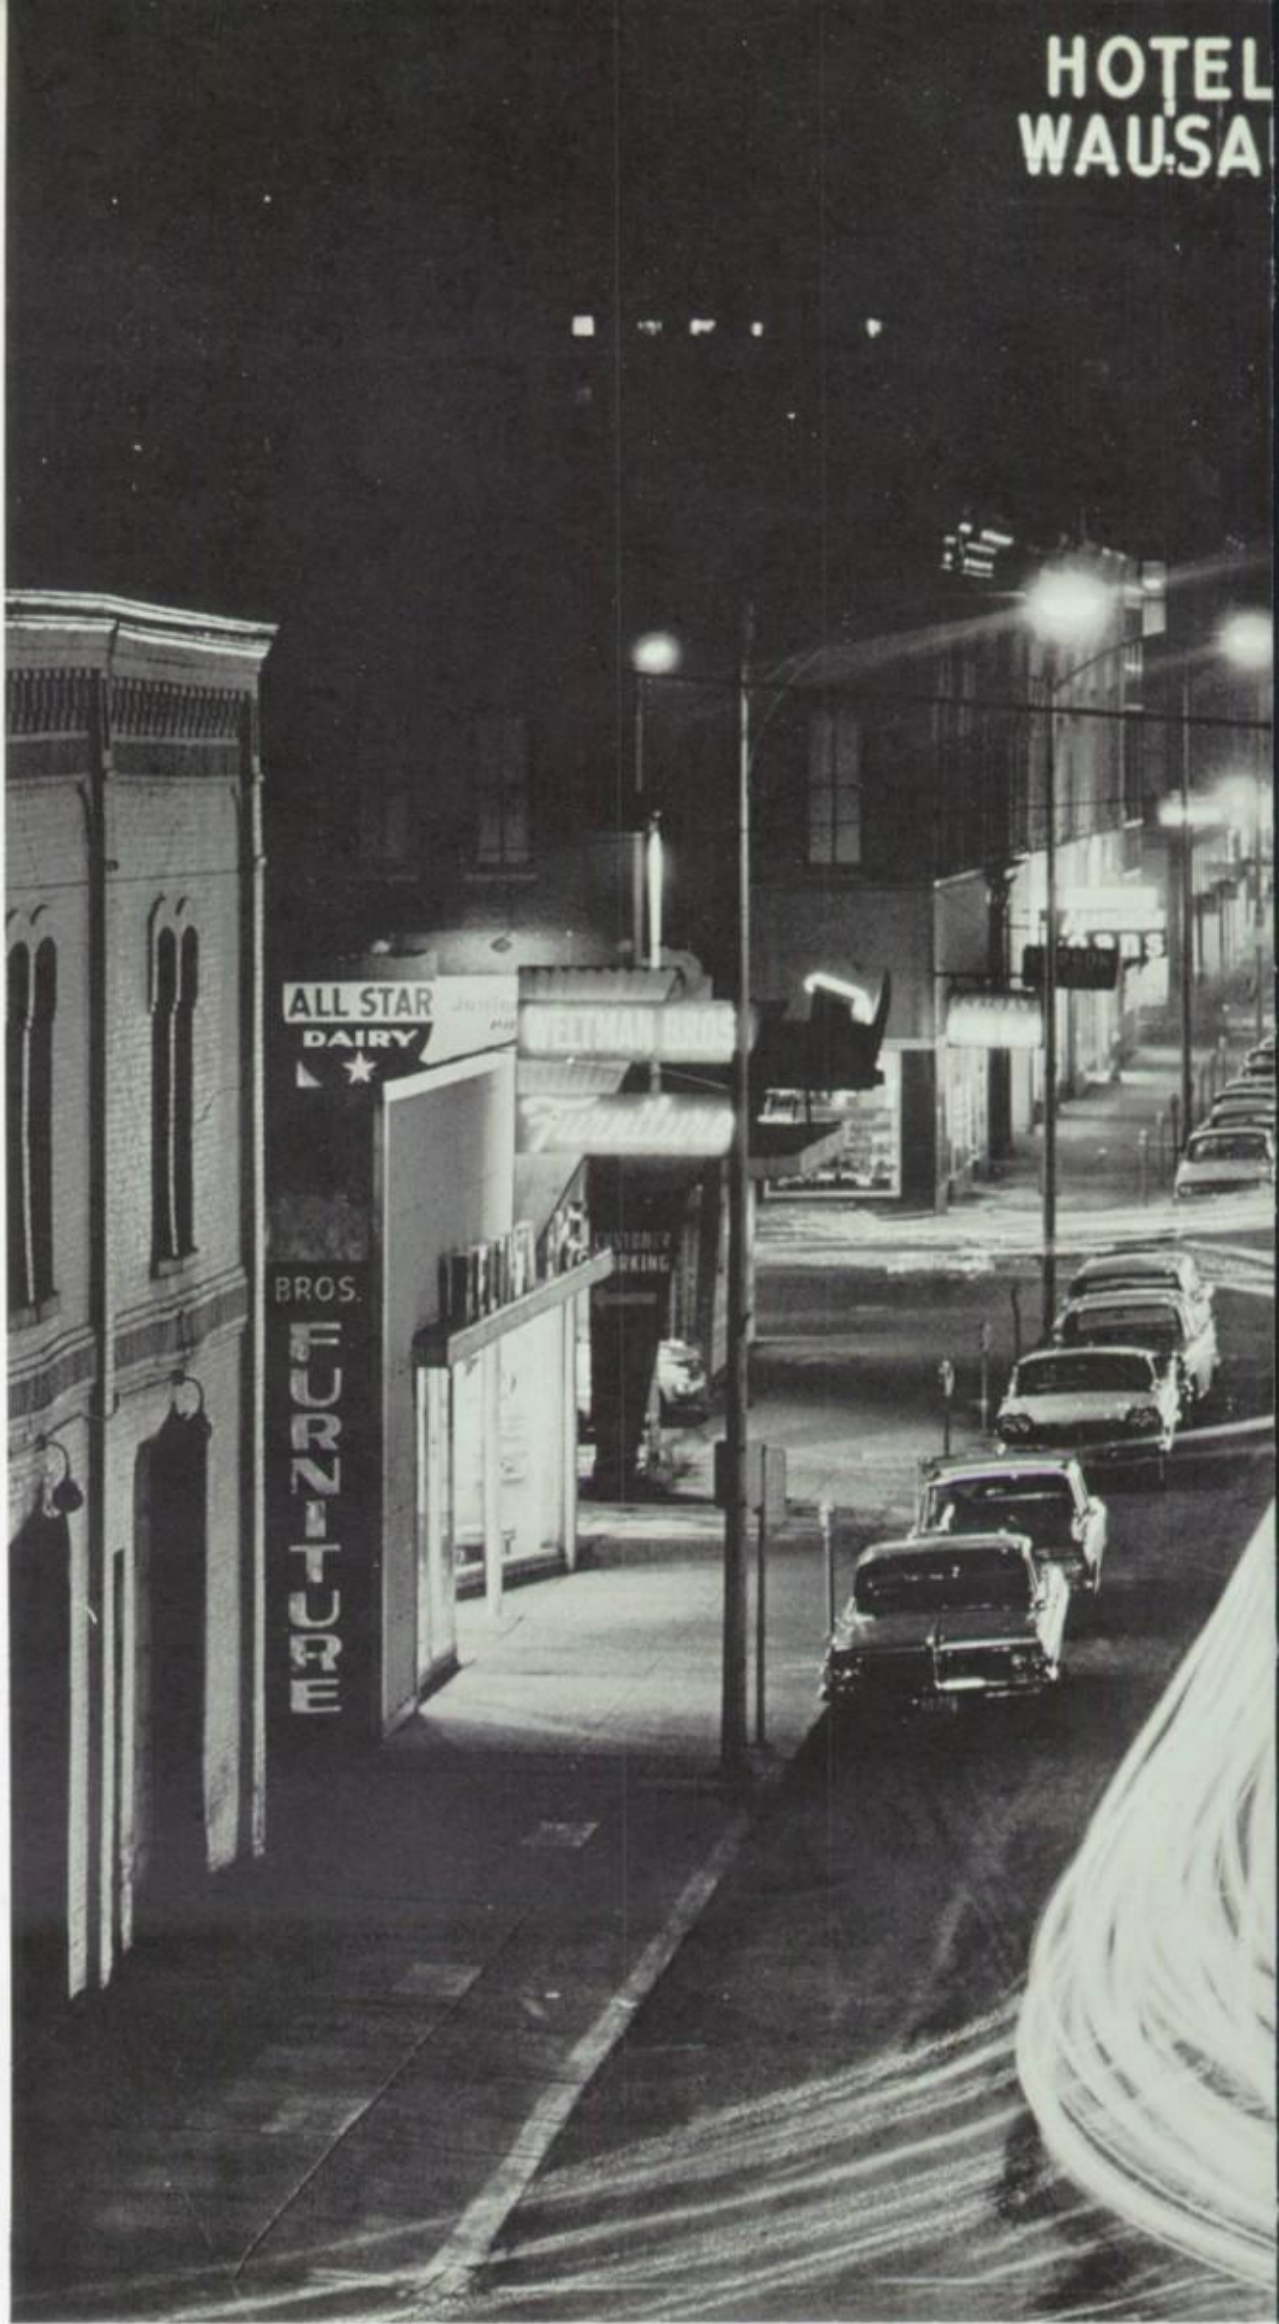

Services To Wausau Senior High

CUTODIANS—From the time they raise the flag in the morning to the time they lock up at night, the custodians are always working. Did you know that while we are in our classes, the custodians are sweeping the halls? During the thawing of the snow, who was it that took care of the leak in the assembly hall? During those big snowstorms, who shoveled the snow from the walks surrounding the school? Of course it was the custodians. We, the students of WHS are greatly indebted to the entire staff for their continuous services.

MEN CUSTODIANS—Schoenick, Heisler, Ramthun, Pischke, Henke, Genrich, Beese. (Absent: Pophal, Kalinke).

AUTOGRAPHS

Bob.
No little note can express what I would like to say now.
I am the fondest of memories of you and all the family from days back when, which I never shall forget no matter how far apart we are.
Thanks so much, Bob, for your encouragement and cooperation in all the N.Y.P.S. and may you always around good friend. May you also walk with God and may place in your give him his rightful place to you.
life. My little bit of advice to you is to do now what you will wish you would have done. You can do the seemingly impossible with God on your side. in fact.
I'm living proof.
Your friend always,
Ruth.

Miss Knaak served as sales and distribution manager for the first time this year. Although the work was new to her, she handled the 1625 subscriptions most efficiently. The largest distribution in the history of the annual was obtained as a result of her successful sales campaign.

Mr. Kenneth Schoen, representing the S.K. Smith Company of Chicago, assisted us in the selection of a cover for the '62 WAHISCAN. As always, he offered a wide selection of colors, grains, and lettering styles—making possible an entirely different cover each year.

Willing Help, Cooperation, A Record of . . .

The fine work of Ray Toburen, the photographer for the '62 WAHISCAN, speaks for itself. From endsheet to endsheet, his pictures show a quality and diversity that is a credit to the annual as well as himself.

Yet these pictures can't possibly show the reader the hundreds of hours of work that have gone into their making. Toburen and his two capable assistants, Ray Gehring and Bill Laut, have come through in deadline emergencies with the same fine performance that has characterized their work throughout the year. For such a courteous responsibility to Wausau Senior High, we thank you.

John Welch, Jerry Goetsch, and G.K. Rosenhauer express their satisfaction after overcoming a major obstacle to the progress of the '62 book. During the course of the year, many such conferences were held and, fortunately, most of them ended on the same happy note.

and Understanding Made Possible

THAT WONDERFUL YEAR '62

Thanks go to the Boehm Bindery, Mr. Bush of National School Studios, the Wausau Daily Record-Herald, the Sun Press, and Ballistrieri's Pizza Room for the services they rendered.

Mr. John C. Welch of the Fey Publishing Company provided personal and understanding assistance to help solve the many problems that arose. Many thanks to you for this special attention.

Words cannot adequately describe the many hours of experienced guidance and kind understanding that Mr. G.K. Rosenhauer, the WAHISCAN advisor, has generously given. Only the many fine annuals produced under his direction can speak for his tremendous accomplishment. The entire staff joins me in expressing their genuine thanks.

Dear Brother Bob, (Reserved)

It sure is a pleasure to write in the annual. I was surprised to see my right picture in here when I don't go to school. I'll never forget all the good times we have had a lot of disagreements but we didn't argue no one knows we had a sister and brother. Well but that's life. If we didn't argue no one would know we are sister and brother. Well best of luck in the future to a real swell brother. May God bless you Richly
